

CLOSE TONIGHT AT EIGHT P. M.

Greatest Voting Contest Ever Held In The City Of Janesville Is Nearing End.

WHO WILL WIN THE DIAMONDS?

Great Credit Is Due F. H. Burke For Able Manner In Which He Has Conducted The Strenuous Campaign For The Gazette.

This evening at eight o'clock sharp the last vote in the great diamond and flag contest conducted by the Gazette closes. The last few days have been full of interest to the contestants and their friends and the results are eagerly waited for. At eight o'clock sharp by the Western Union time the ballot boxes close and the returns will be turned over to the judges for final count. The gentlemen who have kindly consented to conduct this important end of the contest are A. P. Burnham, A. E. Bingham, Charles Gage, W. O. Newhouse, Dennis Hayes, James A. Fathens and J. F. Hutchinson. The announcement will be made and the final count conducted in the assembly room of the city hall. Special words of commendation are expressed on every hand by contestants and their friends, of the kind and courteous manner in which Mr. F. H. Burke, who has had charge of the contest, and conducted the campaign. Mr. Burke is a native of Wisconsin and has done much newspaper work in this state. He is now conducting contests similar to the one just closing for the Gazette throughout the country. He has made many warm friends in Janesville who will be sorry to see him leave at the completion of his labors here. The contest closes tonight, the winners of the two diamonds and the two flags will be announced tonight, but tomorrow evening the Gazette tenders to all the contestants and their friends a complimentary banquet at the Myers Hotel at eight-thirty, at which time the prizes will be presented to the winners. The spirit that has been engendered into the contest, the good natured rivalry for the prizes, has added zest to the voting so unique and fair that it has appealed to everyone.

PLAN TO BOOM THE SOUTHWEST

CONVENTION UNDER AUSPICES OF ST. LOUIS BUSINESS MEN

TO INDUCE IMMIGRATION

Kansas Semi-Centennial and Advocacy of Better Roads Among Subjects to be Discussed.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

St. Louis, April 16.—To plan for the advancement of the business interests of the Southwest in general and particularly to induce immigration into the states and territories of the Southwest is the primary object of a two days' convention which was opened in St. Louis today under the auspices of the Business Men's League. The gathering is regarded as one of the most important of its kind ever held in St. Louis, and the most beneficial results to the Southwest are expected to follow if the objects, as outlined, are carried out. More than three hundred delegates were present when the convention was called to order at the Mercantile club this morning by James E. Smith, president of the Business Men's League. Nearly every commercial organization in Texas, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, New Mexico, and Arizona was represented by the delegates. In addition the governors of several states and territories were present as well as editors of leading newspapers and other representative citizens of the great section represented by the convention. The visitors were cordially welcomed to the city by Mayor Wells. Temporary organization was then effected by the delegates and a committee on resolutions appointed, one from each state and territory represented, which is expected to formulate some plan for a permanent organization for the development of the southwest. No set program has been arranged for the remaining sessions, but it is likely that among the subjects to be discussed will be the following: The agencies for the development of the Southwest, the Kansas semi-centennial, the money value to the Southwest of good roads, and the best permanent plan for inducing immigration into the Southwest. The gathering will come to a close tomorrow evening with a great banquet at the Hotel Jefferson. Covers will be laid for 500 guests and the speakers will include Governor Folk of Missouri, Governor Pratt of Oklahoma, Governor Hagerman of New Mexico and a number of other men of wide note.

Kansas Editors' Meeting.
Junction City, Kas., April 16.—Makers of newspapers gathered here in force today for the annual meeting of the Kansas Editorial association. Tomorrow morning the visiting editors and their leaders will visit Fort Riley where a big review of cavalry and artillery will be given in their honor.

Bible Conference.
Gainesville, Ga., April 16.—Many eminent Methodist ministers and laymen are gathered here for the annual North Georgia Bible conference, which will be in session throughout the greater part of this week. The attractive program and the prominence of the speakers combine to give promise of a highly successful conference. The Rev. I. S. Hopkins, D. D., of Athens, delivers the introductory sermon at the formal opening of the conference in the First Methodist church this evening.

NEWS OF THE DAY AMONG THE SPORTS

They're Off at Memphis—Canadian Fencing Championships Being Contested For.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Memphis, Tenn., April 16.—They're off. The day for the annual spring meeting of the New Memphis Jockey club has at last arrived, and the racing season is at hand. Nothing but inclement weather can prevent this being one of the most successful meetings ever witnessed in the South. The program for the inaugural day is excellent and contains many stake horses that are not included in the list of starters for the Montgomery Handicap, which as usual is the big event of the opening day.

Boston Horse Show.
Boston, Mass., April 16.—The Boston Horse Show, which opened "in Mechanics" Building today, is a record-breaker from the point of entries, class and general attractiveness. The exhibition promises to be a great success from the society point of view. The harness classes particularly are much stronger than usual. One of the interesting features during the week will be cavalry drills by a troop of United States cavalry from Ethan Allen.

Carter Handicap Today.
New York, April 16.—The track at Aqueduct never looked better than it did today at the opening of the spring meeting of the Queens County Jockey club. As usual the feature of the opening day is the Carter Handicap of $10,000, for three-year-olds and upward.

Fencing Championships.
Montreal, Que., April 16.—A large number of entries and some brilliant work with the foils are features of the Canadian fencing championships begun today at the Montreal athletic association. The teams were made up of both men and women and represented Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, and other points.

STATE NOTES

Stockholders of the Citizens Telephone company at Union Grove and other towns in the county are holding meetings and talking over the advisability of uniting the local lines under one head, with a view of entering into contract with the Wisconsin Telephone company for more extended service.

The Sherwood Forest property, one of the leading summer resorts at Green Lake, has been purchased by F. C. Howard of Ripon, the transfer taking place of Friday. The property includes about ninety acres and is valued at $60,000. George Wilson, the former owner, has large hotel interests in California.

When William Roemer and his son owned the Fiebrich-Fox-Hilker Shoe factory at Racine on Saturday, they discovered the body of the watchman, Charles Schult, aged 56 years, on the basement floor. It was believed that the man had been killed or committed suicide, but investigation showed he died of heart failure.

The annual meeting of the North Central section of the American Psychological association and the Western Philosophical society came to a close at Madison on Saturday. The addresses and papers are to be printed in pamphlet form and circulated. Most of the forty delegates will remain in Madison over Sunday as guests of university friends and acquaintances.

Million More Capital.
Toronto, Ont., April 16.—The shareholders of the Toronto Railway Company met today and took favorable action on the proposal of the directors to issue $1,000,000 new shares. The additional capital will be used to extend the lines, to provide new equipment, and for various other improvements.

The Disgruntled One—There is gloom in my heart and iron in my soul. What's the use of trying to legislate for an ungrateful country when they turn on one like this?

BINGER HERMANN CASE BROUGHT UP

Oregon Representative in Criminal Court on Charge of Destroying Public Records.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Washington, D. C., April 16.—The case of Representative Binger Hermann of Oregon, who is charged with destroying certain official records of the government concerning the business of the general land office, was called in the criminal court today. Justice Gould presiding. This is one of the principal of the so-called land fraud cases and the trial will be followed with close public attention. The indictment against Representative Hermann, which was reported more than a year ago, charges that the defendant destroyed thirty-five letter press copy books containing certain official letters concerning the affairs of the United States general land office, January 13, 1902, at a time when Mr. Hermann was commissioner of the land office. A demurrer, alleging that the charges were not sufficiently set out to admit of a proper defense, and claiming other defects in the indictment, was overruled last month.

JEFFERSON DINNER PROMINENT EVENT

Woodrow Wilson, Mayor McClellan and Bourke Cockran Will Speak.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

New York, April 16.—Elaborate plans have been made by the managers of the Democratic Club for their annual Jefferson Day dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria tonight. The speakers and other prominent participants will represent the conservative wing of the party, and it is believed that the speeches will sound a warning against the spread of the socialist spirit in the Democratic ranks. The principal speakers will be Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton University; Mayor McClellan, ex-Attorney General; Judson W. Harmon and W. Bourke Cockran.

SUICIDES AFTER FIENDISH ATTACK

A. E. Evans, Insurance Man of Waterloo, Ia., Expiates Assault On Aged Couple at Hampton.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Des Moines, Ia., April 15.—Following a brutal attack on Obadiah Smith and wife, an aged couple residing near Hampton, A. E. Evans, a prominent insurance man of Waterloo, committed suicide by shooting early today at Hampton. Evans went to Hampton Saturday to transact business with Smith. It is alleged when the latter was about to take some legal papers from his safe, Evans struck him a blow over his head. Mrs. Smith interfered in behalf of her husband and was seriously attacked and was both found lying unconscious.

Fined for Fighting. For creating a disturbance on Milwaukee street near the bridge about eight o'clock last evening, Frank Corwin was this morning fined $2 and costs, amounting in all to $6.55, and George Irwin was fined $4 and costs, amounting to $6.55. The young men struck elbows with John Burns and a brother in passing and a fight ensued in which a woman who chanced to be going by was accidentally knocked down.

DAUGHTERS OF THE REVOLUTION

FIFTEENTH CONTINENTAL CONGRESS IN SESSION.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Question of Expelling Prominent Member to be Decided—No officers to be Elected.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Washington, D. C., April 16.—The fifteenth continental congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution convened in Memorial Continental Hall today. About 1,000 delegates and alternates from all the states in the Union attended. The congress will be in session throughout this week and much important business will be transacted. No officers are to be elected this year. The "Montana matter" promises to be the most interesting subject to come up for consideration and decision. This is the question of expelling Mrs. Walter Harvey Wood, daughter of Representative Bill of Connecticut, and former state regent of Montana. Mrs. Wood is an intimate friend of Mrs. Fairbanks and managed the campaign of Mrs. Sternberg, who ran against Mrs. McLean. Today was devoted to seating delegations and getting through with the preliminaries of organization. The remainder of the week will be filled with business and pleasure intermingled.

Tomorrow afternoon the Daughters will make a specially conducted visit to the Library of Congress. In the evening the best presented to the Daughters by the French Ambassador, M. Jussierand, last spring will be unveiled with impressive ceremonies. Thursday afternoon "Patriots' Day" will be observed. Commissioner MacFarland will address the congress, and there will be a specially arranged program. Friday will be observed as charter members day. The distinctly social features will be a reception by the president general, Mrs. Donald McLean, which she will give in the ball room of the new Willard Wednesday evening.

ANNUAL EGG-ROLL AT WHITE HOUSE

Swarms of Youngsters in Gay Carnival on Green Slopes of South Grounds.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Washington, D. C., April 16.—The green slopes of the south grounds of the White House were alive today with swarms of children, who, with baskets filled with brightly colored eggs, entered with zest into the annual Easter Monday egg-rolling carnival. The crowd was one of the largest on record. Many grown persons attended or attempted to gain entrance to the grounds, but the rule established to bar out all who were not accompanied by children was strictly enforced, so the youngsters had the best time they ever enjoyed on a similar holiday. The grounds were open from 9 o'clock in the morning until sunset. The Marine Band gave a concert in the afternoon. The occupants of the White House were particularly interested in their Easter Monday guests, and whenever they had the leisure today they watched the children at play.

Buy it in Janesville.

THE SAN ANTONIO SPRING CARNIVAL

Opens Tonight With Masked Omala Street Pageant and Welcome to King Selamat.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

San Antonio, Texas, April 16.—Everything is in readiness for the opening of the San Antonio spring carnival. All trains arriving today brought hundreds of visitors from far and near. The formal opening takes place tonight with the masked Omala street pageant and welcome to King Selamat. Other features on the week's program are a baby carriage parade, a trades and civic display, concerts and patriotic exercises. The number of visitors during the week will be greatly swelled by the state sarsengster and numerous conventions to be held. The city is gayly decorated and each night during the week it will be brilliantly illuminated with thousands of electric lights. Numerous street attractions and carnival shows opened today.

BRILLIANT EASTER WEDDINGS TODAY

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Porter-De Ruyter.
New York, April 16.—A brilliant Easter wedding today was that of Miss Ella de Ruyter, a daughter of the late John de Ruyter, and a descendant of the famous Admiral de Ruyter and Augustus Drum Porter. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Moses Taylor Campbell, in East Seventy-seventh street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. George Houghton.

Brooks-Marion.
Annapolis, Md., April 16.—A brilliant naval company filled St. Anne's church at noon today at the wedding of Miss Jeanne Leontine Marion, daughter of Prof. Henri Marion of the department of French at the Naval Academy, and Mr. Ernest Brooks. Mr. Brooks is a graduate of both Yale and Cornell universities and is now engaged as civil engineer at the Naval Academy.

ALL GRADES OF REFINED SUGAR FELL TEN CENTS PER HUNDRED LBS. TODAY

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Twenty-five Years a Nun.
Newark, N. J., April 16.—At St. Mary's orphan asylum in this city Sister Columba today observed the twenty-fifth anniversary of her entrance into the Order of St. Vincent de Paul of the Sisters of Charity. Prior to entering the order, Sister Columba was Miss Clair O'Connor of this city. Sisters of charity from all parts of New Jersey and some from New York participated in the anniversary celebration.

Library Association.
Toronto, Ont., April 16.—There was a good attendance today at the opening of the sixth annual meeting of the Ontario Library association. The sessions, which are being held in the Canadian Institute, will last over tomorrow. The chief feature of the program is a study of the new library buildings of Canada and the United States.

RACE WAR OVER IN SPRINGFIELD

Arrival Of Six Companies Of Troops Seems To Have Had Desired Effect.

MOB LEADERS TO BE PUNISHED

Governor Folk Offers A Reward For Arrest Of Those Who Took Part In Wrecking Jail.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Kansas City, Mo., April 16, 3 p. m.—A Springfield, Mo., special to The Kansas City Star says: "The streets today are full of people who approve of the work of the mob and who damn all negroes, advising that they be run out of town. All danger of mob violence is not past and hundreds of men boldly utter threats that if arrests are made the people will arise and rescue the arrested men and drive the militia as well as the negroes from the city."

Folk Issues Instructions.
Jefferson City, Mo., April 16.—At noon Governor Folk issued instructions to General Clark, in command of the state militia at Springfield, to arrest the leaders of the mob, put them in jail, and surround the building with troops for protection.

Quiet This Morning.
Springfield, Mo., April 16.—Quiet prevails here today and the indications are that the race trouble is over. The presence of troops has had the effect of bringing the people to the full realization of the situation. Six companies of new troops patrol the streets.

The civility toward the negroes which actuated a mob of several thousand men, women and boys to break into the jail Saturday night and lynch and burn three blacks—Horace Duncan and James Copeland, accused of assaulting Mabel Edmondson, a white woman, and William Alton, charged with the murder of O. P. Rourk, an aged man—was not satisfied by the tragedy and so serious the situation that the authorities of the city and county united in an appeal to Gov. Folk to send the militia. Yesterday afternoon it was reported was the situation that the authorities of the city and county united in an appeal to Gov. Folk to send the militia.

izens was sworn after a conference between Mayor Meyer, Sheriff Horner and the prosecuting attorney. Governor Folk was reached by long-distance telephone, and when the situation was explained he ordered out the militia companies from Aurora, Pierce City and Carthage here and they arrived last evening. A few hours later four more companies arrived.

A crowd of negroes assembled on the public square, the scene of the lynchings, early last night and refused to disperse, but when the first company of militia arrived they sullenly scattered. It was feared that an attempt would be made during the night to set fire to buildings in the outskirts of the city.

Thousands of people swarmed about the jail to view the wreck caused by the mob. The people flocking in by train were mostly hoodlums, who apparently scented trouble and were anxious to take a hand in it. Many others, who came from the farming districts, caught up the mob spirit roarily and joined the general sentiment that the negroes should be driven from the city and that now, when the feeling against the race was strong, was the time to do it.

Gov. Folk has authorized the offering of a reward of $500, the limit allowed by law, for the arrest and conviction of members of the mob, and instructed Assistant Attorney General Gentry to proceed here at once and aid the grand jury of Greene county in ferreting out and punishing the leading lawbreakers.

Prosecuting Attorney Roscoe Patterson and Sheriff Horner are said to have secured the names of more than 100 men who took part in the lynchings. The leaders made no effort at disguise and worked in the full glare of the electric lights.

BIG STEEL STEAMER COLLIDED AND SUNK IN THE SOO RIVER

"Saxonia" and "Eugene Zimmerman" Went Down in 20 Feet of Water
Today—Crews Safe.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., April 16.—The steel steamers "Saxonia" and "Eugene Zimmerman," coal-laden, collided in the Soo river today. Both sunk in twenty feet of water. The crews are safe. The "Zimmerman" was making her maiden trip.

PLEASANT SURPRISE FOR HAPPY COUPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Lake of Evansville Who Celebrated Golden Wedding Saturday.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Evansville, April 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Lake were completely surprised Saturday evening when a large company of neighbors and friends walked in upon them quietly as they sat reading, the occasion being their golden wedding anniversary. Later in the evening another surprise was given them when a Saturday evening's Gazette was handed them containing fine photos of themselves and a column and a half of history.

SPECIAL TERM FOR BLACKBURN'S TRIAL

Congressman Charged with Accepting Fee For Service Before a Government Department.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Greensboro, N. C., April 16.—A special term of court convened here today for the trial of Congressman Spencer Blackburn, representative of the Eighth district. Congressman Blackburn is charged with accepting a fee for service before a government department in violation of the law. News of the day—half.

FIRE BULLETS IN HER SISTER'S HEART

Atlanta, Georgia, Woman Being Tried For Murder—Does Not Deny But May Be Acquitted.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Atlanta, Ga., April 16.—The criminal division of the superior court which convened today will take up the trial of Mrs. Willie W. Standifer, who shot and killed her younger sister on March 9. The crime was the result of an alleged intimacy between Mrs. Standifer's husband and her sister. Mrs. Standifer freely admits her guilt, saying she intended to kill her sister and is glad she "avenged her outraged womanhood." Public sympathy appears to be with the accused wife and her acquittal is generally predicted.

DENATURED ALCOHOL BILL PASSES HOUSE

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Washington, D. C., April 16.—The denatured alcohol bill has passed the house.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

KEROSENE GOES UP HALF CENT TODAY

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Cleveland, O., April 16.—The Standard Oil company today announced an additional advance in the price of refined oil and gasoline of one-half cent per gallon.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

THOMAS S. NOLAN,

LAWYER.

311-313 Jackson Building.

Janesville : : : Wisconsin

JESSE EARLE

Attorney at Law

Rooms 17-18 Sutherland Bldg.
Janesville : : : Wisconsin

Phone, Rock County 365.

STANLEY D. TALLMAN,

LAWYER.

Opp. Merchants and Mechanics' Bank 11 West Milwaukee Street.
Janesville, Wisconsin.

J. J. CUNNINGHAM,

LAWYER.

No. 215 Hayes Block.
Janesville : : : Wisconsin

CHAS. W. REEDER,

ATTORNEY AT LAW AND JUSTICE
OF THE PEACE.Room 4 Carpenter Block.
New Phone 575 : : : Janesville, Wis.

CORYDON G. DWIGHT, M. D.

207 Jackson Bldg.
Practice Limited to EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROATConsultation from 9 to 12 and 2 to 5 and by appointment.
New Phone 890 : : : Old Phone 2762.

WILLIAM RUGER, WILLIAM RUGER, JR.

RUGER &amp; RUGER,

LAWYERS.

F. C. BURPEE,

ATTORNEY AT LAW
Room 1 Central Block.

New Phone 51 : : : Janesville, Wis.

John Winans. H. L. Maxfield.

WINANS &amp; MAXFIELD,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW
Room 2 Central Bldg. Janesville, Wis.

New Phone 240 : : : Old Phone 4783.

FUTURE EVENTS

Prof. E. K. Crocker's troupe of educated horses at the Myers theatre three nights, commencing Monday evening, April 16.

Story of the Reformation—Life and Times of Martin Luther, presented by local talent at Myers theatre Thursday and Friday evenings, April 19 and 20.

A CARD

We the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50-cent bottle of Greene's warranted Strop of Tar if it fails to cure your cold. We also guarantee a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded.
J. P. Baker, Geo. D. King & Co.,
J. E. Helms, Smith's Pharmacy, People's Drug Co., H. E. Hanson & Co.,
Janesville, Wis.

LODGE MEETINGS TONIGHT

Oriental Lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias, at Castle hall.

Rock River Tent No. 51, K. O. T. M., at East Side Odd Fellows' hall.

Rock River Hive No. 71, Ladies of the Macabees, at East Side Odd Fellows' hall.

Janesville Assembly No. 171, Equitable Fraternal Union, at Cathedral hall.

St. Patrick's Court No. 218, W. C. O. F., at West Side Odd Fellows' hall.

Painters, Paperhangers &amp; Decorators' union at Trades-Council hall.

EVERYBODY IS TALKING MADAM BELL.

CLAIRVOYANT.

Madam Bell is certainly doing a big business and she deserves it too. The genuineness of her work is past doubting, as her record in this city shows the truth of her predictions has been wonderful, and she has thoroughly earned the confidence of the public. By special request she will stay one more week and all that have not consulted her better do so at once, as she is going to make a tour of the world before she returns.

READINGS, $1.

104 South Franklin St.

HATS

The new styles in Men's Hats are here:
Men's Black Hats, new shapes, at $1.50.

Men's Hats, Black, Brown or Gray Fedora, at $1 each.

Men's Black or Brown Hats, Fedora style, at 50c &amp; 75c each.

Men's Tan Work Hats, wide rims, leather bound, at 50c each.

Men's Crash Hats, white or brown, at 50c each.

Men's Straw Hats, Sailors, fancy shapes or wide rims, at 25c, 50c, 75c &amp; $1 each.

Girls' Fancy Braided Straw Hats, at 25c and 50c each.

Ladies' or Misses' Sunbonnets, at 15c, 20c and 25c each.

MRS. E. HALL,

55 W. Milwaukee Street.

EASTER SUNDAY A DAY OF GLADNESSDAY GLOOMY BUT CHURCHES WERE FILLED.

SERVICES AT THE CHURCHES

Special Music Marked All the Morning and Evening Church Services Sunday.Despite the cold, raw winds, the glowering skies and general hangover from winter Easter bonnets, new dresses and spring attire, accompanied by winter furs, were noticeable.
Easter is one of the great holidays of the Christian churches the world over. Special services mark the day as one of the feast days of the churches. The following is the musical program of the different Janesville churches.At the Congregational Church
At the Congregational church Rev.
Denison took for his text for his morning sermon "Death Is Yours."
The following was the special Easter music rendered in the morning:
Organ—Festival PreludeChorus—Christ Our Passover
Sextette—The Bells Are Ringing
The Easter PealSolo—"Like As a Heart Desires"
Miss Jessie Simms; Cello Obligato,
Mr. Lewis.Offeratory—Alto and Soprano Solos and Chorus—Ring Out Glad Bells of EasterOrgan, Postlude—Hallelujah Chorus HandelEVENING.
Prelude—Organ and Orchestra
Chorus—Lift Up, Lift Up Your Voices NowSextette—Teach Me, O Lord
Solo and Chorus—O Day of Love
EternalSolo—King of Kings
Mrs. Lewis; Violin Obligato, Mr.
Halverson.Male Chorus—Alleluia! Alleluia!
Orchestra—ReverieChorus—Blessed Organ, Postlude—AllegroOther Services
The Knights Templar attended the Easter services at the Presbyterian church in full uniform, marching to and from their hall on South Main street.At the St. Peter's English Lutheran church special services were held and special music rendered by the choir. At St. John's German Lutheran church the usual Easter services were held and those who were confirmed a week ago partook of their first communion. Services were also held at the First Church of Christ, Scientist.Cargill Memorial Church Rev. J. H. Tippet preached at the Cargill Memorial church and special music was given by the choir. The pastor's subject for his sermon was
"The Power of Resurrection." Music for morning:Anthem—"Christ Is Risen" Pratt Anthem—"They Have Taken Away
My Lord" StainerSolo—"I Know That My Redeemer
Liveth" From the Messiah
Miss A. D. Medlar.The evening worship was at 7 o'clock. The service was a sacred concert by choir and Sunday school. Ladies' octette sang "Let Chimes of Glad Easter Ring" by Abt.St. Mary's Church At St. Mary's Catholic church the following music was rendered by the choir at the mass at 8:30 a. m.:
Children's ChoirMiss Frances Reus, organist
Mass—10:30.Mass in Honor of St. Cecilia
M. Hohnlein
First tenors—A. Hanuska, Frank Baar, J. Smith, Ph. Reus; second tenors: H. Smith, E. Hyder, W. Hyder; first bass: G. Fencleman, A.
Huebel, J. Weber, J. O'Grady; second bass: P. Neuses, J. McGee, J.
Murphy.Intolitus, Graduate, Offertorium, Communion, Responses.
Plain Chant—Surplice Choir
Organist and DirectorProf. W. T. Thiele
Vespers—7:30 p. m.
Vespers of B. M. V.—Hanna
Rogina CoeliO Salutaris, Tantum Ergo
J. Singerberger
Ladies' Trio—Vesper Choir
Antiphon, Responses, Surplice Choir
Director: Miss Bourgmeier, organist:
Miss Mamie McGinley.Trinity Church
At Trinity Episcopal church Rev.
H. C. Boller preached and services were held both morning and evening.
The music was as follows:
Procession—O Sons and Daughters
IntroitKyrie—Garrett in A
Credo—Garrett in A
Hymn 121—Palestina
Offeratory—Solo, Mr. Leonard Matthews
Sanctus—Garrett in A Benedictus—Garrett in A Agnus Dei—Garrett in A
Gloria in Excelsis—Garrett in A Recessional—Hymn 123EVENING 7:00.
Magnificent and Nunc Dimittis—Kimmins.The Baptist Church
At the Baptist church Rev. R. M.
Vaughan took for his subject, "Victory." The music for the day was as follows:
The Gates of Pearl—Smith
Choir and OrchestraSolos—He Shall Feed His Flock; Come Unto Me—Messiah
Mrs. J. S. Taylor, Mrs. C. P. Knoff.
There is a River—Burdett
Choir and Orchestra.Resurrection—Shelley
Mrs. C. L. Mohr.
The Golden Threshold—Lohr
Choir and Orchestra.Come, Unto Me—Blumenschein
Choir.
Twenty-third Psalm—Palmer
Choir.This is the Way—Cooke
Choir.At Christ Church
At Christ Episcopal church the pastor, Rev. Francis Ver, preached at the morning service and the special music was:
Organ—Von Weber
The Lord Is Risen—Anthem—HagerChrist Our Passover—Anthem, Lloyd Gloria Patri—Marsh
Te Deum—Wheaton Roads
Jubilate—Roper
Hymn 116—Nevin
Gloria Tibi—Gilbert
Hymn 121—Victory
Offeratory—The Choir Angelic
Sanctus—Hanscom
Kyrie Eleison—Warren
Gloria in Excelsis—Murray
Nunc Dimittis—Langmont
Organ Postlude—LungmanPresbyterian Church
At the Presbyterian church Rev. J.
W. Laughlin gave his sermon on "The Walk to Emmaus" and the evening subject was "The Choice of the Higher Things." The music was as follows:
MORNING.
Prelude—"Fantasia and Fugue" Adolf Hesse
Anthem—"I Shall Not Die, But Live" Parker
Choir.
Offeratory—"Cantata"
John Hyatt Brewer
Bass, Solo—"The Resurrection"
Shelley
George L. Adkins.Postlude—"Hallelujah Chorus" (Messiah) Handel EVENING.
Prelude—"Fuguetta" Lemmens
Anthem—"Grant Us Thy Peace"
Choir.
Offeratory—"Nazareth"
Gounod-Westbrook
Quartet—"God is a Spirit" Bennett Postlude—"Toccata" (Finale) DuboisWHAT WAS MEANT BY INDIAN COAL LANDSThe Segregated Coal Lands of Indian Territory Discussed.People who have been following the course of debate on the Indian bill in the Senate may be interested to know more about the coal lands which the government now holds in trust for the Indians in the Indian Territory.Senator J. A. McPherson, who quoted the United States Geological Survey as authority for his statement that there are 437,734 acres of these coal lands, of which 164,000 acres, or about one-fourth, have already been leased. Mr. Joseph A. Taff, geologist of the Survey, examined these Indian lands in 1902-3 and segregated those distinguished for their coal or asphalt deposits. He personally segregated 437,734 acres of coal land and 7,236 acres of asphalt land.It will be remembered that the United States made a treaty with the Cherokee and Chickasaw tribes on March 21, 1902, in accordance with which all deposits of coal and asphalt on their lands were to be sold at the expiration of two years after the final ratification of the treaty. In the interval the Secretary of the Interior was to ascertain what lands were principally valuable because of their deposits of coal or asphalt and to withhold them for allotment.Mr. Taff was appointed to survey the field and segregate the mineral lands. It was considered advisable to divide the area into five districts and report separately on each. Mr. Taff's reports are therefore contained in five separate circulars published in 1904
by the Department of the Interior.
These five districts include (1) the McAlester District, Choctaw Nation,
(2) Wilburton-Stigler District, Choctaw Nation, (3) Howe-Poteau District, Choctaw Nation, (4) McCurtain-Massey District, Choctaw Nation, and (5) Lehigh-Ardmore District, Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations. The coal lands in these districts were advertised for sale on the following dates: October 3, 1904; December 5, 1904; February 6, 1905; April 3, 1905, and June 5, 1905, respectively.The bids sent in for the purchase of tracts within these districts were disappointing. A commission composed of Gen. John M. Wilson, a retired officer of the United States Army, and two Indian citizens, one a representative of the Choctaw and the other of the Chickasaw Nation opened the bids and found them so low as to suggest that the bidders were desirous of purchasing the lands purely as an investment. The consequence is that the commission considered it better not to sell the lands. They are therefore still in control of the government.There are four beds of commercially valuable coal in the McAlester district. In the Wilburton-Stigler district there are five workable coal beds, four in the Wilburton division, one in the Stigler division. The Howe-Poteau district contains seven coal beds of workable thickness.
The McCurtain-Massey district contains two coal beds of known workable thickness, one in each division of the district. The Lehigh district contains two workable coal beds.Many of these coals are high in quality. Most of them are admirably situated for mining. The beds appear to range in thickness from 24 to 7 feet. The McAlester coal bed in the McAlester district has an outcrop length of more than 70 miles. Many of the coals make a coke of excellent grade. There is no doubt that, intrinsically and comparatively, these coal deposits in Indian Territory have great value.TO LIVE BALANCE OF DAYS IN DARKNESSPhysicians Have Little or No Hope of Saving John Dugan's Eyesight.John Dugan, the unfortunate workman who was so terribly burned by molten iron which was blown out of a mold at the New Doby Works a week ago Thursday, will probably lose the sight of both his eyes. The physicians who have been treating him at the Palmer hospital state that the power of seeing is entirely gone from the right eye and that there is little if any hope for the left eye.HE SOLD NINETEEN ACRES
IN MAGNOLIA FOR $1,035At Evansville on Saturday Sheriff Cochrane sold at auction to settle a mortgage held by the Eager estate 19½ acres of unimproved land in the town of Magnolia. The price paid was $1,035.WAS BRIGADIER
GEN. BY BREVETTHE LATE REV. MILTON WELLS OF FOOTVILLE.

WAS A VIRGINIAN BY BIRTH

Enlisted as a Private and Became Captain—Then Assisted in Raising Regiment.The late Rev. Milton Wells, whose death occurred at Footville last Tuesday night, was the sixth child born to his parents, Bazeel and Nancy Wells, in the county of Brook, state of Virginia, July 13th, 1828. On the eighteenth of March 1848 he was married to Mary Meigs Walker and unto this

THE LATE REV. MILTON WELLS

union were born four children, two boys and two girls—Josephine, Franklin, Lottie and Clifford—all of which have preceded him to that bourn from which no traveler returns but Franklin, the second child and only one left to mourn the loss of a beloved parent.

Always a Christian

At an early period of his life he, together with his wife, united with the Christian church at Wellsburg, Va., in October, 1852. So active in Christian work he was soon elected elder and from that time he earnestly engaged in winning souls to Christ through exhorting and reasoning with his neighbors and friends at every opportunity.

His Army Career

At the breaking out of the rebellion, although a Virginian by birth and education, he was loyal to the flag of his country. June, 1861, he enlisted as a private to battle for his country.
August 2d of the same year he was commissioned by Governor William Dennison of Ohio as captain of said company. He resigned this place to assist in raising the 15th West Virginia infantry, of which he was commissioned major and was later promoted to the colonelcy at the battle of Cedar Creek, October 19, 1863. He was wounded in the left hip by a spent bullet from which he suffered all his life. Before the close of the rebellion he was appointed brigadier general by brevet.

Death Was Sudden

He passed from the stage of action of this life Tuesday night, at ten o'clock, April 10, 1906, after an illness of only 48 hours of pneumonia, aged 76 years, 8 months and 28 days. His lifelong companion and one son survive him, three brothers, one sister, ten grandchildren and other loving relatives besides scores of friends who mourn his loss and will ever cherish his memory.

Funeral Services

Private services for the family were conducted at the home Friday morning at 10 o'clock by P. C. Cumberlain, Center Point, Iowa, an old and esteemed friend of Father Wells, who with his good wife came in response to the telegram announcing his death. After this service the body was taken to the Christian church, there to lie in state until one o'clock in charge of the Masonic lodge, Rev.
Mr. McCarthy of Richmond Center and Rev. Mr. Larimore of Footville conducted the funeral. Rev. McCarthy preaching a beautiful sermon from that favorite scripture, "In my Father's house are many mansions," etc.
The church was beautifully decorated and many beautiful flowers covered the casket. The G. A. R. of Janesville post, of which the deceased was a member, attended in a body and the Masonic lodge from Broadhead, Evansville and Janesville, together with the home lodge, attended and had charge of the service at the grave.
It was the largest funeral in the history of Rock county.TEXAS GREET'S MANY WHO VISIT COUNTRYHome-Seekers, Health-Seekers and Investors Invade the State
This Week.On April 20 and 21 St. Antonio, Texas, is to be the scene of a gay gathering of citizens from all parts of the United States who will journey to Texas to inspect the great "Empire" of the west. The real occasion is the second annual meeting of the Northern Settlers' Association. The invitation sent out by the eleven railroads under whose auspices it is held reads: "A hearty invitation is extended by the lines mentioned below to visit Texas and to the gray-haired America and their gentle companions with silvery hair to those of middle age and to the ladies and lassies we urge that you all meet with us at San Antonio, Texas, April 20 and 21, and join with us in the exercises of the second annual meeting of the northern settlers' association and learn of its opportunities." The roads signing the invitation are the T. & N.
O. G. H. & S. A., Texas Midland railroad, H. & T. C. H. E. & W. T. G.
C. & S. F. M. K. & T. I. A. G. N.
P. and the St. L. B. & M.

Gazette want ads bring results.

LINK AND PIN...

News for the Railroad Men.

North-Western Road Engineer Grant Smith took switch-engine number 76 to Green Bay this morning. This and other engines sent up lately will be in service on the peninsula division this summer during the season for carrying iron and copper ore.Engineer E. G. Ensfield was on switch-engine number 124 last night and will dispatch engines this evening.

Engineer Prosel is off duty.

Fireman George Berrell is laying off.Engineer Guy Cole, night engine dispatcher, is off duty.Fireman Walter Wilke has gone to Waukegan for a few days' vacation.Fireman Merz is laying off runs 11 and 12 for two days and is being relieved by H. P. Merrill.The Wyoming & North-Western line is now operated from Casper, Wyo., for a distance of 927 miles to Wolton.MAKING READY FOR LARGE TIMBER SALESWorking Plan Completed to Meet Demand for Ties in Wyoming Without Risk to the Future.The demand for lodgepole pine ties by the western railroads, which prefer them to any other because of the ease with which they take preservatives, has greatly increased the market value of the Rocky Mountain forests in northern Colorado, Wyoming, eastern Idaho, and southern Montana, where lodgepole pine is the predominant tree. These forests are largely within existing or proposed National forest reserves, and are consequently under Government control;
so that the Forest Service has felt the need of preparing plans to permit the sale of such mature timber in them as may be safely spared. During the past year a working plan was completed for about 40,000 acres in the Wyoming division of the Medicine Bow Reserve.It was found in the first place that the protective value of the forest as a cover for the watersheds is so great that any utilization of the timber crop must be subordinated to it.
Throughout the region the control of system flow by the forest cover is the prime consideration.The mining industry, which is of high importance, will not be hampered by the disposal of reserve timber, since all the mining claims located in or near the tract include timber sufficient for the needs of the owners.
The present moderate grazing of cattle is carried on with out risk to reproduction of the forest.The Medicine Bow Forest Reserve contains the largest continuous body of lodgepole pine to be found in the tract for which the plan was made is accessible; the cutting has been carried on in the reserve for some years;
and it was definitely known that all the timber which could safely be removed would find a ready sale. Measurements in the woods and careful studies of the rate of past growth furnished data from which the Government forests calculated what the forest can be expected to yield and what per cent can be cut safely now.
It was found that 165,000,000 feet B.
M. of lodgepole pine could be taken out and yet leave a large percentage for future crops. Special studies were made of the injury to which the forest is liable from insect attack and fungus, from windfall and fire. Local market conditions were the methods and cost of lumbering were investigated to see whether improvements and economies might not be instituted, as well as to fix upon a fair stump-page price.The completed plan provides for better protection of the forest from fire, including effective measures for compact piling of debris and brush in openings ready for burning; stipulates that all timber to be removed shall be marked in advance by the forest officers, who will be furnished with a full set of instructions to govern all steps in the logging operations; and requires that all merchantable parts of trees be used.Similar working plans will be prepared for available bodies of timber on other reserves, making possible the utilization of these vast forests under a system of scientific management which will perpetuate and improve the stand and, above all, safeguard the forest cover on watersheds.wheat, two hundred bushels of potatoes, and sixty bushels oats to the acre.This new line of railway opens up millions of acres of sheep and cattle range, where the rich buffalo grass and gramma grass make the best pasturage on earth, curing like grain, so that stock will fatten on it in the fall.The new line passes through Wol-ton, one of the biggest original wool shipping points in the world, and will be completed to Shoshoni within the next sixty days or less.Shoshoni is two and one-half miles from the reservation border, and here and at Lander the Government will probably establish land offices for registration when the Indian lands are thrown open.The reservation has been inhabited by a docile, law-abiding people, who are engaged in farming in a small way. The most of them have taken up land by allotment, preventing to abandoning the reservation, and the government is encouraging
the leasing of these Indian farms, which are very choice lands, to white farmers.The state of Wyoming controls the waters of Wind River and Little Wind River, and the State engineers are making surveys and preparing for irrigation projects under state supervision, by which a large proportion of the reservation will be placed under water and thereby made very valuable. Agriculture here without irrigation is practically out of the question, and such lands as do not come under the proposed ditch will be used for grazing lands, for which purpose they are without a superior.If the state builds the irrigating canals now proposed, it will give an opportunity for new-comers and settlers to secure work.A large movement of people West is predicted when the rates of the Shoshone opening are placed in effect.The fortunate settler who secures one of these quarter sections will get his land at a cost of about $150 per acre, payable in easy installments, covering a period of several years.
This, of course, does not include cost of water rights on such lands as are to be irrigated.Hanging and wiving may go by destiny, but chaperons and lawyers still have to work overtime.—New Orleans Picayune.Myers Grand Opera House
PETER L. MYERS, Manager.
New Telephone 609MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY
APRIL 16-17-18.—MATINEE,
WEDNESDAY.PROF. E. K. CROCKER'S Famous Thirty Educated
Horses, Ponies, Donkeys and Mules.....Also motion pictures. Second to none.
Prices, 10-20-30-50c.Matinee for school children Wednesday at 3:30 p. m. Admission:
children, 10; adults, 20.

Seats on sale Monday at 9 o'clock.

SEE
"THE STORY OF THE REFORMATION" OR "THE LIFE AND TIMES OF

MARTIN LUTHER"

"ALL OVER BUT THE SHOUTING"

The Air Is Full Of Conflicting Rumors As The Gazette Diamond Contest Draws To A Close.

READY FOR THE OFFICIAL CANVASS

Be Patient Yet A Little; You Will Soon Know Where To Send Your Congratulations.

The following shows the results of the balloting to six o'clock p. m., Saturday, April 14:

LADIES
MRS. WM. E. SPICER—Janesville Lodge D. of R. 34595
MRS. ALICE MASON—R. N. A. 34555
MISS ELLA WILLS—W. H. Sargent Corps W. R. C. 34223
MRS. MABEL DUNWIDDIE—Degree of Honor 27314
MISS MAE CONROY—W. C. O. F. 24579
MISS ADDIE BURRINGTON—Milton Junction R. N. A. 3372
MISS HALLIE A. AMES—Evansville M. E. Church 307
MRS. M. RABYOR—O. G. T. 509
MISS MAMIE GARVIN—St. Patrick's Church 405
MISS ANNA BISHOP—St. Joseph's, Edgerton 263
MISS CHARLOTTE SKINNER—Edgerton Chapter O. E. S. 43
MISS HELEN HENDERSON—Edgerton 28
MISS BERTHA HOGAN—L. A. to A. O. H. 27

GENTLEMEN
JOSEPH CONNORS—Knights of Columbus 53614
ED. O. SMITH—Equitable Fraternal Union 50455
ALVA L. HEMMENS—Ind. Order Foresters 29406
JOHN NICHOLS—Janesville Aeris F. O. E. 24396
IRVIN P. HINKLEY—Milton Lodge Camp M. W. A. 6519
E. T. FISH—A. F. & A. M. 1358
CHAS. BULLARD—Evansville K. P. 931
J. J. RUSSELL—B. of L. F. 327
ED. S. FALTER—Shoe Workers 613
DR. F. T. RICHARDS—Y. M. C. A. 445
JOHN CLARK—C. O. F. 349
JAY GREEN—Clinton Y. M. C. A. 142
A. E. BADGER—Modern Woodmen 127
MICHAEL RABYOR—O. G. T. 123
RICHARD GRIFFITH—Rock River Tent K. O. T. M. 65
FRED MCKINNEY—Edgerton Lodge K. P. 63
EARL GATES—Congregational Church 60

"It's all over but the shouting" is the way a subscriber put it this morning as he dropped his ballots into the box and remarked that he had performed his whole duty as a voter. He did not say whether he was so sure of the outcome that he could name the winners, as is usually inferred when the expression is used, but it is so nearly all over that those who are to do the shouting may almost be getting ready. And it is certain that even at this late hour no one can be so sure of the outcome as to name the winners. From present indications it is going to be so close that

MT. VESUVIUS IS TRANQUIL

OBSERVER EXPECTS SATISFACTORY ENDING OF ERUPTION.

Two Women Are Rescued After Six Days—Still Alive But Speechless from Suffering.

Naples, April 16.—The somewhat threatening condition of Mount Vesuvius Saturday night having subsided with the ejection of enormous clouds of sand and ashes, the elements have begun to settle slowly, again enveloping the mountain in a thick haze and cutting off the view from Naples, only the outline of the base being visible.

Prof. Matteucci, director of the Royal observatory on the mountain, issued the following bulletin:

"My instruments are most calm. The emission of sand continues in their abundant quantities and I wait serenely a satisfactory termination of the eruption."

The sudden renewal of alarm Saturday night gave way Sunday to the celebration of Easter with unusual fervor. The festival is always picturesque in Naples, but Sunday it was doubly so. Cardinal Prisco, archbishop of Naples, celebrated an elaborate, thanksgiving mass in the cathedral, while along the streets crowds prostrated themselves before sacred images.

The gravity of the situation has now shifted to Ottajano and San Giuseppe, where the recovery of the dead from the debris goes on amid the misery of thousands of homeless refugees.

A sensational development occurred during the work of salvage at Ottajano when the searchers unearthed two aged women, still alive but speechless, after six days' entombment. They were among the hundreds who were crushed beneath the falling walls during the rain of stones and ashes last Sunday and Monday. Hope had been abandoned of finding any of these persons alive. The women were protected by the rafters of the house which they were in and had managed to exist on a few morsels of food which they had in their pockets.

Nine dead bodies were taken out Sunday and it is estimated that a hundred more remain under the ruins. The work of salvage goes on amid the twisted masses of fallen houses, churches and stables and in deep drifts of cinders and ashes. At some points the ashes are ten feet deep reaching to the windows of the second stories of the few hovels still standing.

The work of salvage at San Giuseppe has brought to light a remarkable condition. Bodies have been found of women in whose hands were coins and jewels, and one woman held a rosary, indicating the instinct to preserve earthly belongings in the moment of fleeing from death.

The excavations at Mercanum over which the town of Restina stands have recorded similar instances of death overlooking its victims carrying their jewels while fleeing from the invading lava.

CHECKS MASSACRE OF JEWS

Orders to Russian Provincial Authorities Has Desired Effect in Preventing Excesses.

St. Petersburg, April 16.—The Easter festival, the anniversary of the Jewish massacres at Kishinev and other places, happily was not stained this year by anti-Jewish excesses. The measures taken by the central government and the orders sent to the provincial authorities to take every precaution, with the added warning that they would be held personally responsible for outbreaks, apparently were effective, though the danger will not be over until the Easter holidays are passed.

Unveil War Secretary's Portrait.

St. Petersburg, O., April 16.—With elaborate exercises a life-size oil painting of Edwin M. Stanton, the war secretary, a native of Steubenville, was unveiled at the courtroom Saturday. It was the gift of Eliphaz F. Andrews, an artist of Washington, D. C.

Menu of the Eagle.

The voracity of the eagle is a well known fact, but it has been left to a Swiss hunter to define exactly the variations which take place in its daily menu. In a nest in the Alps, side by side with an eagle, he found a hare, freshly killed, twenty-seven chamois' feet, four pigeons' feet, thirty peasan's feet, eleven heads of fowls, eighteen heads of grouse, and the remnants of rabbits, marmots and squirrels.

Success has crowned our efforts of untiring endeavor and we present to the public with a confidence never before held by any other medicine; Holister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, tea or tablets. Smith Drug Co.

Careful Housewives

when getting ready to put away your stoves for the summer, give each stove a coat of 6-5-4 to prevent it from rusting; it is applied like paint, so requires No Polishing. 6-5-4 is better than an enamel for Stoves, Pipes or Wire Screens; it is easier to apply and dries in 10 minutes.

For Sale by H. L. McNamara and A. E. Sheldon Hardware Co., Janesville.

Jonathan P. Dolliver.

Senator from Iowa.

SKIN DISEASES

FIERY ACIDS IN THE BLOOD

All skin diseases are due to the same cause—an excess of acid in the blood caused by faulty assimilation of food and poor bowel action; this fiery acid matter is forced to the surface through the pores and glands. Pustules are formed, discharging a sticky fluid which dries and makes a crust, causing intense itching. When the crusts or scabs are scratched off the skin is left raw and bleeding.

Sometimes skin diseases are in the dry form, and bran-like scales come on the flesh, or the skin becomes hard and dry, often cracking, and the painful itching causes acute suffering. It does not matter how the trouble is manifested, the cause is the same—an excess of acid in the blood. Salves, powders, cooling washes, etc., while they relieve the itching and give the sufferer temporary comfort, cannot cure the trouble because they do not reach the acid laden blood. The best treatment for all skin diseases is S. S. S., a remedy that is purely vegetable and one which acts directly on the blood with a cleansing, healing effect. S. S. S. neutralizes the acids, and purifies the blood so that the skin instead of being blistered and burned by the fiery fluids, is nourished by a supply of cooling, healthy blood. Special book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired will be furnished without charge.

Dear Sirs—My body broke out with a rash or eruption which in spite of all efforts to cure continued to get worse. The itching, especially at night, was simply terrible. I had tried many highly recommended preparations without benefit, and hearing of S. S. S. determined to give it a fair trial, and was twice greatly delighted when a few bottles cured me entirely. Escandido, Cal. I. MARNO.

S.S.S.
PURELY VEGETABLE.
THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Correct Attire for Easter

Every requisite of the well dressed woman finds its best expression in the incomparable showing of outer garments and accessories at Simpson's. Suits, Skirts, Coats, Waists, the very newest New York productions, are now on display.

One Hundred New Suits

The show room samples of one of the best manufacturers in the east, which means that they have not been handled on the road, not packed in trunks, but have been displayed in the show room and are, therefore, in the very best of condition. Beautiful suits in greys, Alice blues, reseda, navy and black, no two alike, and every one a gem. Here now and ready for Easter—$12.50 to $45.

A Beautiful Waist Display

Nothing missing that fashion demands in the new waists—Lace Waists, Mull Waists, Lawn Waists, Silk Waists, Lingerie Waists, in short the most extensive waist display in town.

About Your Easter Hat

The millinery department is prepared as never before to show you the correct ideas. A visit here will enable you to see the best part of the town's display. New patterns are added daily, some from the city houses, and others the product of our own work room. The favorable impression made by last week's opening is being added to every day.

Simpson
DRY GOODS

COURTSHIP AMONG THE TIGARA.

Mothers Talk Business, but Young People Have Final Say.

If in the village of Tigara, in northwestern Alaska, one sees a young man beating out a piece of metal and fashioning a finger ring, it is usually intended for some young woman, but it remains for the meeting of the two mothers to arrange matters. The two families may be living close together yet the mother of the young man will call on her neighbor and tell her how she has intended to be more neighborly, but she has been so busy.

The neighbor will declare how delighted she is to see her. Then mother number one begins to tell what a great hunter her son is, and how good he is. Mother number two remarks that her daughter is such a lovely cook. Having taken lessons, she knows how to cook everything.

Mother number one declares that they are never hungry in their igloo, as son is always successful, and brings lots of seals home. Mother number two remarks that her daughter is such a good sewer, and knows how to sew a beautiful boot sole.

It is finally decided that the young man shall enter the girl's family on a sort of trial. If the girl turns up her nose and makes faces he may as well leave, as the match will never amount to anything; but should she greet him with an occasional smile and allow him to sit by her side in the evening, it will all be clear sailing, and they will unite as husband and wife.—Youth's Companion.

"Old Dame Margery."

Any number can play this game, but there should not be fewer than five players. All sit round a large, bare table. The player who is to start the game turns to his neighbor and asks, "Have you heard the news?" The neighbors say, "No. What news?" "Old Dame Margery is dead." "How did she die?" "So!" And as he says this he begins to bang on the table with his right hand and continues doing so, while the player who has been speaking with him takes the turn and tells the "news" to his neighbor on the other side.

This goes on all round the circle till everybody is banging on the table. When it comes to player No. 1 again he starts with the same question as before, but when it comes to "How did she die?" he stamps on the floor under the table with his foot at "So!" going on banging with his hands as well.

This goes the round till all are banging and stamping. The third time when he says "She died so!" he nods his head, and soon the whole circle is nodding, banging and stamping. The fourth time, at the question, "How did she die?" he suddenly stops all noise, leans back in his chair and folds his arms, saying "So!" with a sigh of relief, and the game gradually calms down.

Lots of men labor by waiting for something to turn up.

You seldom hear of a rolling stone being called a mossback.

Want a buselman who knows How to press or alter clothes?
One to let out coats and pants?
Place Gazette ads in advance.

3 Lines
3 Times
25c

WANT ADS.

WANTED.

WANTED—Carpet and rug to clean with the latest machinery. All work guaranteed. Carpets called for and delivered. Fred Rossmoeller Bell phone 554; 212 N. E. Ave.

WANTED—10,000 pounds of wool, for which will pay best market price, address Editor Bullard, Evansville, Wis. Bell phone 358.

FOR SALE—Fine young Irish setter, 44 and 32 revolvers, 2 rifle, double and single bolt, 12-ga. shotguns, fishing outfit, 408. Karpis St.

WANTED—A place to work for board, and rent please. Inquire at 110 N. Academy St.

WANTED—Roll top desk in good condition. State price. Care P. M. Gazette.

WANTED for U. S. Army—Able bodied unmarried men between ages of 21 and 35, citizens of United States, of good character and temperate habits, who can speak, read and write English. For particulars apply to Recruiting office, Empire Hotel, Janesville, Wis.

WANTED—Position as assistant bookkeeper or clerk. Address P. M. Gazette.

WANTED—Immediately—Loan of $5,000 on good real estate. Beuchet, Little & Co., real estate agents, cor. Laver and Milwaukee Sts.

WANTED—Position as bartender. Address P. C. S. care Gazette.

WANTED—A good road sidewalk man. $2.25 per day, ten hours, steady work all season. J. F. Wicker, Rockford, Ill. Got an International car at Rural St., walk two blocks east.

WANTED—A good competent girl. Inquire of Mrs. Frank Jackson, 132 Sinclair St.

WANTED—Janitorship to large building; night watch or driving team, by middle aged reliable man. Experience and references. New phone 161, day.

WANTED—Horse; small roadster preferred. In exchange for strictly high grade piano now in storage. Schiller, care Gazette.

WANTED—Steady, reliable woman wants to work for dressmaker half day, or laundress, address A. E. C. care Gazette.

WANTED—Immediately—Competent girls for private houses, good wages. Also cook and care, dish washers, for houses. Mrs. J. M. McCarthy, 276 West Milwaukee St.

WANTED To Buy—A modern 8 or 9 room house in good location. Address giving price, location, etc. H. S. Gazette.

WANTED—Cows to pasture at reasonable terms. Inquire of M. Quirk, second house west of Jackson St. bridge.

WANTED—Carpenters, $50 per hour paid in good mechanics. Apply at new school building at Milton or Blair & Sammers, Janesville, Wis. 6-5-4.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT or Sale—Remington typewriter in first class condition. Inquire at Gazette office.

FOR RENT—Coolest ground floor flat in the city; six rooms; modern conveniences. Call any day or evening. 311 S. Main St. 3rd St.

FOR RENT—The Mountain boarding house of 14 rooms, on East Milwaukee street, $18 per month. Inquire of Edw. H. Ryan.

FOR RENT—Modern flat. Inquire of R. H. Morris, 102 Fourth avenue.

FOR RENT—Two large, sunny rooms, furnished; terms reasonable. 103 North Bluff street.

FOR RENT—Room dwelling No. 312 Jackson St. Hayner & Beers.

FOR RENT—The west half of the Madison hall house, corner West Bluff and Pearl Sts. Hayner & Beers.

FOR RENT—Corner flat over Holmstrom's shoe store, April 23. New flat at C. E. Kent, North Bluff street. Both have all modern improvements. Inquire of H. D. Nutdock.

FOR RENT OR SALE—Building suitable for manufacturing or tobacco warehouse, formerly Taylor & Lowell Mill plant. Apply to E. W. Lowell.

FOR RENT—Six room house; hard and soft water, in first class condition. Possession immediately. 10 Park St, 3rd ward. Dr. Wm. Horn.

FOR RENT—Nine room house, with gas, city and soft water, at corner of Madison and Ravine Sts. Inquire of W. E. Noyes, 9 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms No. 9 South Academy St. With or without board.

FOR RENT—1-room house corner South Main and Racine Sts. E. F. Pierson.

FOR RENT—Broom house No. 18 Armour St., with barn. E. F. Pierson.

FOR RENT—Three or four pleasant and comfortable rooms for light housekeeping; furnished or unfurnished, to responsible party if taken at once. Inquire at 303 Glen St.

FOR RENT—Modern house on or before May 1st. Inquire of H. W. Perigo, 18 Raper avenue.

FOR RENT—New five room cottage on Washington avenue. Inquire at 451 Park avenue.

FOR RENT—Six room house in good repair; city water, soft water, gas and garden. Inquire of Geo. S. Wright, 18 Park Ave.

FOR RENT—Two modern five room flats at No. 7 Jackson St. W. S. Pond.

FOR RENT—A very pleasant down stairs flat; modern conveniences. E. N. Froedall, 37 S. Main St.

FOR RENT—Modern steam heated flat; hard wood floors, bath, gas range, etc. Inquire at S. D. Grubb's clothing store.

FOR RENT—Four room cottage with barn and three acres of land. Inquire of Mrs. George Irvine, 518 N. Bluff St.

FOR RENT—Four rooms for light housekeeping; city water and gas; good location. Apply to F. H. Snyder, Curie block.

FOR RENT—House and lot in Spring Brook. Inquire at No. 2 Racer Ave. Tel. No. 474.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE at a bargain—Family horse, phaeton and harness, perfectly safe for a woman to drive. Money to loan. For Rent—Modern house, with bare and garden. Pensions a specialty. W. J. McIntyre, 210 Jackson St.

FOR SALE—Five acres of tobacco land in Rhode Island. Write wire inquiring. Address M. Reed, Rt. 4.

RHODE ISLANDERS. Wonderful layers; handsome birds; eggs 20 cents for setting. Russell Parker 431 Court St. New phone 273; old, 14.

FOR SALE—Seed potatoes, Saxtons, and Rural New York. Also Black Minorca Leghorns eggs for setting. C. W. Allen, 228 Chatham St.

FOR SALE—8-room house; good state of repair; handy to business. Hayner & Beers.

FOR SALE—New seven room house; all modern conveniences; sewer and cesspool; storm sash; hot water; wind. New phone 35.

SEVERAL Good Baysies in farms and city houses. If you are interested call and see us. Money to loan on good security at five per cent. South & Sherman, Real Estate, Bonds and Insurance Agents, Phoenix Block, 21 West Milwaukee St., Janesville, Wis.

FOR SALE—My residence 211 S. Bluff street. Will sell cheap if taken soon. Inquire at residence. J. M. Dearborn.

FOR SALE—Polled Durham bulls from six months to fifteen months old. E. R. Boynton, Avalon, Wis.

FOR SALE at a bargain—Seven room house and barn. Inquire at 61 Palm St.

FOR SALE—Good brick house S. Franklin St. street, five lots, Chatham St., Chas. H. Forest, Park lot, house and lot in Spring Brook. Money to loan. F. L. Clements, 161 W. Milwaukee St.

FOR SALE—Pure bred S. C. Brown Leghorn eggs for hatching. 50c for 13. Call evenings at 305 Center St.

FOR SALE—Beet, cultivator, seeder and Pack steno. Inquire at 61 Palm St.

FOR SALE—Family driving horse. Inquire at Dan Ryan's livery.

FOR SALE—House and lot pleasantly located. Also front room for rent. Inquire at 109 Fourth avenue.

FOR SALE at a bargain—House and sorry. Inquire at 219 N. Jackson St.

FOR SALE—Eggs from thoroughbred Rhode Island Reds, 40 cents a setting. Old phone 4852.

FOR SALE—Cheap—A combination gas and oil cooking range in good condition. Inquire at 7 Maple Court.

FOR SALE, at Mrs. Cyrus Minor's, 301 Court St., a fine Stetson hat, made of seal, with any fur collar, hosiery, goods, and a law mow. Tuesday, April 16th.

FOR SALE—A gas range, and for rent—An upright piano. Inquire at once at 1514 Washington St.

FOR SALE in Oconto County—69 acres all clean, 1/2 mile from Oconto city limits; 6000 ft. Stetson hat, made of seal, with any fur collar, hosiery, goods, and a law mow. Tuesday, April 16th.

FOR SALE—Pure Bred Rock eggs for hatching. 50c for 13. Mrs. L. L. Nickerson, Avalon, Wis. Inquire 35.

FOR SALE—Confectionery stand, 11 stores and soda fountain of E. Olmsted, Edgerton, Wis. of Y. M. C. A.

FOR SALE—House and lot; a bargain. John Melvin, 6 Monroe street.

FOR SALE—Large woven rug, sideboard, chairs and table, iron and brass bed. No. 2 Cullen Flats.

FOR SALE—80 acres near city; good land, fair buildings; tools, machinery. Price... $7,000. Also six miles from city, with buildings, farms, stock of merchandise or heavy crops at Sharon; good land and buildings, per acre $100. 120 acres near city for Sale or Rent.

COME and see if you want to buy, sell or exchange, city property, business or residence. Terms, sales of merchandise or heavy We make loans, write fire and accident insurance. Call, write or phone.

W. E. BURNS, No. 2 Central Block, Janesville, Wis. New phone 240; old phone 1783.

FOR SALE—Let us save you money by making your old Leghorn or Brussels carpets into beautiful rugs. Carpet cleaning. Old phone 2438. Janesville Rug Co., 41 N. Franklin St.

LOST—String of gold beads in Second ward. Leave at Gazette office and receive reward.

CEMENT curb and gutter, concrete floors sidewalks and all kinds of cement work. Bell phone 3954. C. E. Snyder, cement contractor, Janesville, Wis.

LOST—Gold seal stick pin letter "J." Reward $1. Finder please return to office of Doty Mfg. Co.

MRS. D.—Meet me at Holmstrom's Drugstore and we can get a surprise bag and see the new store—Mury.

EGGS from Thompson strain of Barred Plymouth Rocks, large kind and good layers, 50c a setting all over, 50c a setting. No replace eggs if you don't get a fair hatch. 358 S. Franklin St.

PAINT HANGING a specialty. All work neatly done and guaranteed best class. Paul Davenport, 461 S. Jackson St. Both phones.

LOST—Mileage book of C. & N. W. Ry. at or near passenger station. Name Mrs. H. H. Bliss. Finder please leave at Gazette office.

LOST Saturday evening—Ladies' watch, with fob, somewhere in business section. Return to Gazette office and receive reward.

LOST—A captain's Grand Army badge. Return to William V. Morrison, No. 3 Park avenue or to Gazette office.

DR. JAMES MILLS
Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat.

Specialist
Glasses Accurately Fitted.
Office—25 West Milwaukee St.
Both phones. JANESVILLE, WIS.

Cult of the Bagpipe.
An amateur society has been formed for the "diffusion of the cult of the bagpipe," not only in Scotland, but in England. A set of pipes costs from $35 to $50, according to finish and embellishments.

In Favor of Patience.
If you think the other man fell down and he thinks that you fell down, just blame no one, but cheer up, cheer others, keep moving and give time a chance to prove something.—From The Earl Pratt Library.

If you lost anything, advertise it.

Charles S. Francis.

New Ambassador to Austria-Hungary

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

Gazette wants reach 10,000 people

The First Eclipse.
Babylonian inscriptions have revealed the earliest lunar eclipse of which we have any record. Its date is B. C. 1062. The record is proving of great service to astronomers in checking some of the data relating to the moon's orbit.

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE

Business Office Open Saturday Evenings.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Fair tonight and warmer.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Daily Edition—By Carrier:

One Year $10.00

Six Months $6.00

Three Months $3.50

Daily Edition—By Mail:

One Year $10.00

Six Months $6.00

Three Months $3.50

Business Office

Editorial Rooms

If your store-windows were smaller than they are you would worry about it. Possibly your "greater-store-windows," your advertisements, are not as big as they ought to be—and if this is so you have real reason to worry.

Dave Rose has dropped below the political horizon.

It is not always the best man that wins out in a political contest.

Another national possibility that has gone glimmering in Congressman Towne of Kansas City.

Roosevelt favors a rate bill that will be just to the railroad owners and the public as well.

Congress has grown both in wants and size since the national capitol was finished, years ago.

The Milwaukee Free Press is being justly criticised for its unfair report of Senator Spooner's attitude on the railroad rate bill.

Governor "Jim" nomination papers are being passed around in different sections of the state. Now for the explosion.

Possibilities in county politics are now being talked of. The early bird, however, does not always catch the worm.

When the council selects a new street commissioner they should be sure to select one with experience. There is nothing that makes a city look better than good, clean streets.

Mysterious strangers who rap at your door early in the morning to announce the serious illness of some friend are to be discouraged from future visits if possible.

Mayor-elect Becker of Milwaukee has refused the gift of the republican gubernatorial nomination offered him by the Milwaukee Journal, the able democratic adviser of the republican party. Think of that!

It is discouraging to the street commissioner to have papers thrown on to the "bridge" where they blow hither and yonder after he has carefully cleaned that district but a day or two before.

Now is the time to begin thinking about different subjects than the coal bill and the furnace fire. These are all right when the months have a twang to them, but April is supposed to be the beginning of spring.

If Congressman Towne sought publicity his attack upon Roosevelt in Kansas City has given it to him. A publicity that ought to retire him to a mourner's seat with William Jennings Bryan and others of his like.

While Easter day might have been warmer and more specially prepared for the occasion, the weather made no difference in the display of spring finery and while the furnaces boomed away spring hats and spring suits paraded the "boulevards."

How about those band concerts in the park this summer? If they are to be held at all they should be held where they can be enjoyed. Merchants signing the subscription list should stipulate park concerts or "no money."

Have you ever met "the man with the muck rake," the man who sees nothing good in anything and wrong everywhere, who seeks his fortune in the gutter and sneers at the man who looks above the sordid earth into the clear sky and notes the birds and flowers and the bright sunshine?

Tonight is the last meeting of the old common council. Taking it all in all, they have been good, honest and faithful servants of the public and the retirement of such men as Jackman and Baumann is to be deplored, although in Watt and Buchholz, their successors, they will be ably succeeded.

THE VAGABONDS.

(From the Wall Street Journal.)

Spring has come. The ground-hog and John D. Rockefeller have ventured to look upon the sun at noon. The latter, it is said, has even gone so far as to address a word or two of friendly greeting to the more humble citizens of his own immediate world.

Soon, perchance, William Rockefeller, also, and James Stillman, and others of the wanderers may return. Hadley has gone with the winter. No longer does a horde of subpoena-severers haunt the dim corridors of 26 Broadway, nor besiege the docks of the great incoming liners. The winter of their discontent has moved up on the west.

Yet some there be who come not back. Think, if it may be without tears, upon that one-time leader of the Moguls of Morristown, that broad-based pillar of the social structure, that versatile solid rock of integrity and insured honor and respect—Richard McCurdy!

Tears have fallen for many years and will for many other years over Robert Louis Stephenson's "Ordered South." The very thought of such life-banishment awakens pity in the human breast. Think, if Stephenson, away in the Pacific Isles, mourned for the humble home from which he was a vagabond, how much this other vagabond must miss and mourn his generous Fatherland!

Why don't you weep?

THE MAN WITH THE MUCK RAKE.

President Roosevelt in his speech in Washington on Saturday said so many salient truths that it is too bad that every resident of the United States, especially the editors of the "yellow journals and magazines," could not have been present to hear him. While not calling this "yellow journal and yellow magazine" writer by name, everyone who reads the address will understand who is meant. Strong and virile as the man who spoke it, the address stands out for itself, a rebuke to the so-called reformers who go about with the muck rake in their hands refusing to see anything good in life. President Roosevelt has had to stand much personal criticism at the hands of the opposition press and the magazine writers, because of his attitude on matters relating to public welfare. He fully appreciates the conditions that exist, the great severity of men who seek positions of trust and confidence where they are subject to such unjust criticism as the writers of magazines and papers have hurled at public men within the past two years. He spoke truly when he said that such "yellowism" would only revert upon the people. It would not cure the evils by such radical treatment but would bring about a distrust of all things and all men in general. His idea of taxing the great wealth of the millionaires is not a new one. It is not socialistic, but common sense. The president has expressed his ideas of curtailing the passage of huge fortunes from one man to another which will bear careful thought and consideration. It is to be expected that journals opposed to Roosevelt—journals and magazines who believe in sensationalism—will find much to be discontented about in the address. The average stolid citizen will be pleased with it. He will heartily endorse the man who uttered the sentiment that is his own. Coming as his address did Saturday on top of the bitter arraignment he received at the hands of Congressman Towne of Kansas City on Friday night, it is a decided rebuke that was well merited, for the audacious congressman who belittled himself in a "cross of gold" speech of the Bryan variety but was such a feeble imitation it is not worthy of serious consideration.

AMONG THE POLITICIANS

Though the term of United States Senator Anthony of Washington does not expire till 1909 he has already announced his candidacy for re-election. His announcement has served to crystallize the opposition to his re-election. His opponents charge that he has failed to properly look after the interests of his state, particularly in urging the United States government to take up the Palouse project. Senator Anthony's friends on the other hand declare that he is in no way to blame for the failure of the reclamation bureau to take up this project.

Theodore Hartsman, who has announced his intention to try for the seat of Representative Longworth before the republican congressional convention of the First Ohio district, was once City Solicitor of Cincinnati, and was beaten only after a hard fight when he ran as an independent candidate for Mayor.

There are warm fights on in several of the congressional districts of Georgia, and next to the race for the governorship, these are being watched with greatest interest.

Marked activity on the part of various members of the Michigan delegation in Congress has been caused by the authoritative announcement that Senator Russell A. Alger will not be a candidate for re-election. William Alden Smith has announced his desire for the senatorial toga and there are at least five other Michigan representatives who are receptive candidates for the honor. They are Representatives Samuel W. Smith, Hamilton, Fordney, Gardner and Townsend. Besides the congressmen the names of several outsiders are mentioned in connection with the senatorship. Among them are William McMillan of Detroit, son of the late Senator James McMillan, and Arthur Hill, a millionaire lumberman of Saginaw.

This week occur the first primary nominations to be held under the Oregon direct primary law, which substitutes popular choice for the party convention and is designed to strike a death blow at boss control. One of the most interesting contests to be decided by the primary is that for the nomination of congressman in the First congressional district to succeed Representative Binger Hermann, who is under numerous indictments for alleged complicity in the Oregon land frauds.

Editor John Temple Graves of Atlanta is making occasional speeches in various sections of Georgia in support of his candidacy for the United States Senate against Senator A. O. Brown, while Senator Bacon is remaining close to his congressional duties in Washington. The senatorial ship, as well as the contests for congressmen, governor and other state officers, will be decided at the Democratic state primary to be held this summer.

port of his candidacy for the United States Senate against Senator A. O. Brown, while Senator Bacon is remaining close to his congressional duties in Washington. The senatorial ship, as well as the contests for congressmen, governor and other state officers, will be decided at the Democratic state primary to be held this summer.

PRESS COMMENT.

Widely Discimilar Harvests.
Chicago Inter Ocean: From all appearances the new-mown egg will be within the reach of the humblest here this Easter. It is not so with the new mown hat.

Even Mexico Buries the Wires.
Racing Journal: We will now have to watch Mexico for points on progress, the City of Mexico having decided and is now at work putting all overhead wires underground.

"Coin" Harvey Still Arguing.
El Paso Herald: "Coin" Harvey, confessed inventor of free silver and Bryanism, is running a sort of health resort in the Ozarks and is now loaded with arguments that it is unbecoming for the benefit of your constitutional not to go there and pay tuition.

Olaf Olson Of La Crosse.
La Crosse Press: Of course Olaf Olson is not a "common drunkard," as he was incorrectly described in a complaint filed against him. If it were common to have men with a first like Olaf's, the distilleries would be compelled to work overtime.

Imported Game Birds For Illinois.
Exchange: English ring neck pheasants, one of the most beautiful type of game birds, have been imported by State Game Commissioner J. A. Wheeler to be used in stocking the fields and forests of Illinois with this attractive addition to the feathered tribe.

Duties Of A Congressman.
Milwaukee Journal: William Allen White agrees with the late Joseph Rankin of Manitowish. After Mr. Rankin had been in the house a little while he told a friend that "a congressman doesn't need brains. All he requires is legs." He did not like being an errand boy for his constituents.

Wister's Analysis Of Newspaper.
Chicago Chronicle: Owen Wister the novelist expresses this opinion of a New York newspaper: "It's partially tongue-tied, a sad victim of its own excesses. Habitual over-indulgence in blaming has given it a painful stutter when attempting praises; it's the sprucely written sheet of the supercilious; it's the after-dinner pill of the American who prefers Europe; it's our republic's common scold, the Xanthippe of journalism, the paper without a country."

Knew More Than Credited With.
Neenah News: It speaks well for the intelligence of our Wisconsin voters to note the large vote they gave against the notorious pocket ballot. It was generally thought that this question would be overlooked, but it appears the voters are newspaper readers, and the thinking editors of the state showed up the ridiculous nonsense of the new fad, and it was literally snowed under.

Ungentlemanly Pugilists.
Exchange: The reported near approach to fistfists in the street by Battling Nelson and Aurelia Herrera, who are to meet in the ring at Los Angeles, on the 1st of May, may help the gate receipts by attracting those who hope to see a real fight, but it won't add to the reputations of either of the sluggers among "sports" who believe that pugilists can be gentlemen as well as champions.

Rye Reports Not Overbright.
Evening Wisconsin: The report from Washington that the condition of wheat and rye is slightly lower than that of the same grains at this time last year is not surprising. There was little snow during the winter, to protect the grain, and had the season not been a mild one things would have been much worse. The slight decrease gives nobody ground for complaint, and existing conditions are above the average for ten years.

Just Tribute To The Living.
Milwaukee Free Press: "Raymond," the man who is permitted to sign his articles in the Chicago Tribune, says that "President Roosevelt is as honest a man as ever entered public life. That is a good deal to say of a man while he is still in public life. Isn't it a peculiar thing that so many of the men who are given reputations for being dishonest while in public life, are again regarded as tolerably honest sort of fellows after they get out."

Rev. Crapsey's Trial For Heresy.
Chicago Chronicle: That is a noteworthy heresy trial which the Episcopal church is about to have over Rev. Crapsey of Rochester, N. Y. Apparently of Jesus as the church has taught, from belief in his divinity and in his miraculous resurrection. He asserts the immutability of natural law and maintains that this does not make him less a Christian than his church associates. The Anglican church has revealed great wisdom in handling heresy. Conflicts of the kind have been rare in it and this one promises to be the most noteworthy since Colenso. Other Christian bodies will watch it with absorbing interest. Yet Mr. Crapsey will be one of those days and the church will long-outrive him.

Livery Horse Liability.
La Crosse Leader-Press: Peculiar notions in regard to the liability of the man who hires a livery team seem to prevail in La Crosse. Two young men who engaged a team which had a runaway were kept in jail over night and until they had paid the damages, and another man has been arrested in civil process because a horse died from the effect of a kick from a horse in another man's hand. If a human life is worth more than a buggy, the damages to be collected in case of a runaway should be by the man who rents the rig from the proprietor of the livery for giving him a team which runs away, unless it can be clearly shown that the runaway was due to gross carelessness on the part of the driver.

Why Kenosha Wants No Interurban.
Green Bay Gazette: The city of Kenosha and its citizens and aldermen are peculiarly frank in declaring that they do not want an interurban street railway. A company has been endeavoring for some time ineffectually to secure a franchise and the city council now flatly refuses to grant it.

But Kenosha is in a peculiar position in this respect. Situated between Chicago on the south and Milwaukee on the north, both being but a short distance away, it is evident that an interurban connecting Kenosha with them must act to the detriment of the merchants of the former. The big stores and bargain counter prices of Chicago and Milwaukee aided by the judicious but vigorous advertising campaigns of their managers, cannot fail to draw a large part of the trade from Kenosha. For this reason the people of the sandwiched city cannot be blamed for giving the interurban proposition a cold reception.

But the argument that would induce Kenosha to oppose an interurban is the very one to induce Green Bay to be actively in favor of it. Green Bay stands as the metropolis for a prosperous territory peopled with well-to-do farmers and dotted with growing towns and villages. Interurban lines running through this territory would add materially to the good business already enjoyed by the merchants of this city.

SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE.

Yet nobody is so susceptible to small compliments as a woman who is busy around her home, says the Philadelphia Press.

No one likes to hear pretty nothing in home life more than the masculine creature. Much as he likes to say pretty things, he likes better to hear them.

Husbands and wives do think nice things about each other, otherwise they would not love each other. Why not voice these things daily?

Why should not the wife say:

"How nice and fit you look this morning, John."

Or, "You can't imagine how well that waistcoat looks on you."

Or, "How becoming that necktie is that you are wearing."

Or, "There aren't many men with prettier hair than yours."

Or if he is fat: "How I hate angular, bony men."

Or if he is thin: "I am so glad you are not podgy like Mr. Brown."

Or, "You don't know how charming your attention to your mother appears to other women."

Or, "You know how to say such nice things."

Why should not the husband say:

"How sweet and fresh and lovable you look this morning."

"How pretty that little house dress is that you have on."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

A tramp works hard trying to avoid work.

A little taffy is apt to make silly people appear stuck up.

The business of a cradle manufacturer is rocky, but profitable.

There's nothing cunning about the toothache, even if it is acute pain.

Often a man casts a shadow over his charitable acts by talking about them.

Civilization enables a woman to wear a tailor-made gown and eat with a fork.

Many of our best home ties look very much like mother's apron strings.

Never judge the cigar a man gives you by the price he claims to have paid for it.

Don't get discouraged. No man is really down and out until the undertaker gets busy.

It sometimes happens that a modest man employs a press agent to do his boasting for him.

Did you ever encounter a lazy man who didn't attribute all his trials and tribulations to bad luck?

No matter how much a man owes he is always ready to liquidate if invited to face the bartender.

After a man has acquired a certain amount of wisdom he would rather add to it than make a display of what little he has.—Chicago News.

THOUGHTS BY THE WAY.

Any man with nothing to do has a hard job.

He who never tumbles isn't much of a traveler.

Money furnishes a house, but it takes love to furnish a home.

An ounce of honest criticism is worth more than a pound of flattery.

Nine-tenths of what the average man knows is of no earthly use to him.

JAPALAC

REGISTERED TRADE MARK
"WEARS LIKE IRON"

PEOPLES Drug CO. &amp; KING'S Pharmacy

MORE CADILLACS

Were Made and Sold Last Year Than Any Two Other Machines on the Market

Although the Cadillac factory is the largest automobile plant in the world, turning out fifty finished machines every twenty-four hours, they are two months behind orders.

It was a CADILLAC

that won first place and first prize in the run from New York to St. Louis in competition with cars ranging up to eighty horse power, being the first gasoline car to reach Chicago and the first to register at St. Louis.

In Chicago, Saturday, five Cadillacs taken from stock started on a 10,000 mile dependability run. Do you realize what this means? Each car will run nearly three times as far as the ordinary mileage of the average car for a season, and the record will show when the run is completed that the Cadillac will go the distance with greater dependability, less trouble and less cost of maintenance than any automobile on the market.

BLODGETT MILLING CO., AGTS.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

HAMMOND ELEVATOR CO.

From J. M. Gibson, Broker, 204 Jackson Block, Janesville.

Chicago, April 16, 1906.

Wheat	Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
70 1/2	70 1/2	70 1/2	70 1/2	70 1/2	70 1/2	70 1/2	70 1/2	70 1/2	70 1/2	70 1/2	70 1/2	70 1/2	70 1/2

Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2

Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2	34 1/2

Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2

Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2

Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2

Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2

Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2

Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2

Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2

Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2

Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2

Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar
-----	-----	-----	-----

FROM EVANSVILLE

"I came to you, Dr. Richards, because they tell me YOU DO NOT HURT," said an Evansville lady the other day in Dr. Richards' dental office.

"I want my teeth filled and I don't want to be hurt. Now, if you hurt me I shall not be able to recommend you to others."

Dr. Richards undertook to do the work painlessly, and when she left for her home she said:

"You are all right, Dr. Richards. I never had a dentist before who did my work so CAREFULLY and so PAINLESSLY."

This little incident is just one of dozens like it occurring daily in his practice.

People seem to appreciate the kind of service he gives them.

He also SAVES you PAIN when you come to pay the bill.

Office over Hall & Sayles' jewelry store, West Milwaukee street.

Cleaners &amp; Dyers

Ladies Waists, fine Dresses and Spring Jackets Chemically Dry Cleaned.

Janesville Steam Dye House

Carl F. Brockhaus, Prop.
69 East Milwaukee St.

All the New Periodicals and Magazines.....

LEFFINGWELL'S, N. Main Street

BLOEDEL &amp; RICE PAINTERS.

35 S. Main St. Both Phones

DELICIOUSNESS

Imprisoned in every box of our fine Candies. If you want to give the children a treat, take them some of our "sweets," they will surely please them, and are really beneficial and wholesome because of their absolute purity.

MORSE'S BITTERSWEETS

60c lb.

SHUMWAY'S

Allie Razook's old stand on the bridge.

Your CHILD

Is uppermost in your thoughts. Would you launch him upon the stormy sea of life in an imperfect state of health? Would you let him go on day by day consuming disease-infected milk? When health, authorities and experienced dairymen are deceived in apparently healthy cattle, how are you to determine.

Pasteurized Milk

is acknowledged as the only safe method.

JANESVILLE PURE MILK CO.
Gridley & Craft, Props.

LOCAL LACONICS

Students Resume Work: The Janesville young people who are attending the state University at Madison returned last evening or today to resume their studies there tomorrow, after spending a few days at home. The Milwaukee Normal school students have also returned to their work.

Goes South: For the past two months Col. E. O. Kimberley has been in very poor health and because of same he is medically advised to seek a temporary change of climate, which is thought may bring relief. On tomorrow Mrs. Kimberley will accompany him for a three weeks' visit to Chattanooga, Tenn., where they will be the guests of their oldtime friends, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy and family, former residents of this city.

Mrs. Wheeler injured: While inspecting the new home of her son, U. S. District Attorney W. G. Wheeler, yesterday, Mrs. Guy Wheeler fell and seriously injured her hip. There was no fracture but she will be confined to her bed for several days.

Bridge Whist Tourney: Lent being over and all restrictions of the members of the Bridge Whist club, bedecked in clusters of Easter violets and automobile veils, hastened to assemble at the home of Miss Mabel Jackson this afternoon. After the long season of penance the game had lost none of its former charm and a delightful time was enjoyed.

In Armorial Bank: There will be work in the armorial bank at the regular meeting of the Knights of Pythias this evening.

FAREWELL PARTY SATURDAY NIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bunt of Chicago Guests at Pleasant Wedding Reception.

There was a very happy gathering Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Gridley, 363 Glen street. The party was tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Gridley and Mrs. Arthur Fatales for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bunt, who were married in Chicago on March 1 and have now taken up their residence there. Mrs. Bunt, nee Marion Paul, was called home by her mother's serious illness just after the wedding and until now has been unable to return. The entertainment took the form of a farewell reception, and the guests were schoolmates and friends of those in whose honor the affair was given. The evening was spent in rooms very prettily decorated with bunting and paper hearts and jack-o'-lanterns cast a beaming glow over the whole. Dancing was indulged in and music was furnished by the Waverly Mandolin club. A guessing contest was held and first prize went to Miss Marion Chittenden. At midnight an elaborate supper was served on tables bedecked in red and white. The happy couple were the recipients of a handsome set of solid silver teaspoons and a pickle fork. In presenting the gifts Frank Phelps made a few well chosen remarks in behalf of the company. Mr. and Mrs. Bunt did not avoid their friends by informing them that they were to leave this morning and received their just compensation of rice at the hands of a score of conspirators yesterday afternoon at the five o'clock train. Those present Saturday evening were the Misses Maudie Schnell, Bessie Gardner, Marion Chittenden, Edna Shoemaker, Nellie Decker, Ethel Rudolph, Effie Jones and Gertrude Paul and the Messrs. Will Shoemaker, Frank Phelps, Fay Edington, Walter Alvis, Langworthy, W. B. Tallman, Rexford Brown, Jerome Davis, Rollo Dobson and Lawrence Sanborn.

POOR OUTLOOK FOR INTERSCHOLASTIC

University Athletic Association Has Not the Funds to Back Such an Event.

It is possible and very likely that there will be no interscholastic track meet at Madison this year. The University Athletic Association has formerly conducted and financed this event, but this year, on account of the shake-up in athletics and the lack of funds in the treasury, it seems that the organization will be unable to follow its usual program. The purpose of this meet has been to bring prospective point-winners to the University, but if all athletics at that institution are abandoned there will be need of persuading these high school students to come to Madison by such an expensive process. The Janesville high school has usually been represented in this state meet and of late years has succeeded in carrying off a portion of the honors.

LATE LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Full dress suits to rent at T. J. Ziegler Clo. Co.
"Eastern Star" "moonlight" party, tomorrow night. Music by Kniff & Hatch orchestra.

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold their general meeting tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock in the church. A large attendance is desired.

Special midnight supper for the dance at Myers House restaurant.

Full dress suits to rent at T. J. Ziegler Clo. Co.

Circle number ten of the Cargill Memorial Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. C. J. Andrews, 7 Prospect avenue, Wednesday afternoon, at two o'clock. By order of Mrs. P. Lawson, President.

Full dress suits to rent at T. J. Ziegler Clo. Co.

Special midnight supper for the dance at Myers House restaurant.

Women's Catholic Order of Foresters will give a card party and dance at Central hall Thursday evening, April 19. Admission, 25c.

The Congregational church will hold its spring sale and supper on Wednesday, April 18th. Sale opens at 4 o'clock; supper will be served at 5:30 and continue until all are served.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Marriage Licenses: At the office of the County clerk marriage licenses have been issued as follows: Frank B. Dixon and Louisa Mallow, both of Janesville; William F. Keene and Mabel E. Lawson, both of Rockford; George T. Simmons and Ida Hodge, both of Janesville.

Small Fire Saturday: At 5:55 Saturday afternoon the fire department responded to a still alarm from the Ziegler store. The portion of the Carle block basement used as a store-room by the telephone company was filled with smoke and it was found that an old lounge in one corner was smoldering. The burning piece of furniture was removed to the area.

Ceremony of Circumcision: At the Rotstein home, 56 Pleasant street, yesterday morning, the ceremony of circumcision was held. Visitors were present from Chicago and a Rabbi from the same city officiated.

Examined at Edgerton: District Attorney John Fisher went to Edgerton this morning to conduct the examination of Edward Reynolds, charged with stealing a watch.

COUNTY ASSESSORS MEET HERE THE TWENTY-FOURTH

Supervisor of Assessments Frank P. Starr Will Lecture and Give Instructions.

On the 24th of this month at the Court House will be held the annual meeting of the county assessors and at this time Frank P. Starr, Supervisor of Assessments, will lecture and give instructions.

Getting Both Here: We get about so equal a taste of both heaven and hell on this earth that we won't feel quite like a stranger, whatever our fate in the hereafter.—Life.

IN A WRANGLE OVER SPRING BROOK WALK

Several City Officers at Loggerheads as Result of Street Car Co.'s Action.

Over the laying of a plank walk alongside F. O. Samuels' grocery on Eastern avenue a wrangle has arisen which threatens to involve Street Commissioner Sennett, Alderman Brockhaus, the Street Car Co., City Engineer Kerch, Alderman Watt and several others, unless the old council sees fit to pass upon it tonight. In the first place there was a desire on the part of the street car and interurban railroad companies to get dry footing for their patrons over the piece of street which now offers no accommodation in that line to pedestrians. Alderman Brockhaus did not think any city ordinance would be violated if a temporary walk were laid in a time of great exigency.

So Supr. Murphy of the street railway company began laying the plank walk. People in the neighborhood at once complained to Street Commissioner Sennett and he ordered the walk builders to desist from their labors. All this occurred on Friday. Saturday the street commissioner was informed that the work was still being energetically pushed in spite of his orders. So he called upon City Marshal Appleby to aid him in enforcing them. When the latter put in an appearance he was told that Alderman Brockhaus and the city engineer had given the workers authority to go ahead regardless of the street commissioner's directions.

Alderman-elect Watt regarded this granting of a permit by his colleague as being without an order from the council, as an assumption of power entirely unwarranted, and said so. Street Commissioner Sennett says that the story about the street not being graded and the temporary character of the walk were not very convincing at the time. "The custom of stealing in these walks, especially those of the under variety, is getting to be too common," he thinks. Alderman Brockhaus says that a temporary walk is better than a mudhole, that the street has not been graded and permanent cement walks cannot be ordered there; and that he thinks to give permission was the only sensible thing to do when Supr. Murphy offered to lay the planks. City Engineer Kerch says that he at no time heard anything about the matter.

NEW PARK PHARMACY ATTRACTING NOTICE

Thronged with Ladies This Afternoon—Grab-Bag Innovation a Drawing Card.

Those who have already visited the new Park Pharmacy, opposite the Courthouse park, which has been open to public inspection but a few weeks, have found a surprisingly attractive business place. That its popularity is growing every day is demonstrated by the great number of people who visit the store. Today a continuous stream of ladies have called and most of them secured one of the big free surprise bags offered. The whole appearance of the store as you enter at the corner of Main and Court streets is inviting. Just inside the door is one of the largest cigar cases in the city in which are some 37 brands of the best cigars manufactured, personally selected for Janesville's particular smokers. Across from this in the middle of the store is the soda fountain ready to quench the thirst or tickle the palate with its various delicious concoctions for the convenience of those who desire their soda fountain refreshments served as tables in the south part of the store, and a quiet little electric-lighted inglenook is prepared for those who seek seclusion. This whole store contains some 3,000 square feet of floor space and is practically three stories in one, two on Main street and one on Court street, making the largest exclusive drugstore in the city.

Part of the store, in the front plate-glass window in the north half is the largest in the city. Pyrography and materials complete for this burnt-wood work are found in the south front. Mrs. Hume, an expert in the art, gives free demonstrations every day. Here also are artists' materials, a very complete line of them; also painters' supplies—a large line of the famous Lucas prepared paints. Handsome show cases filled with stationery, toilet articles, etc., lead to the general attractiveness of the store and an immense three-side French plate-glass case 30 feet long contains a fine line of confections, chocolates, etc., and a superior stock of cosmetics, fancy toilet articles. The prescription cases, medicine cases, etc., are conveniently arranged at the rear of the store and the one idea of convenience has been carried throughout the store's fitting. Mr. Helmstreet has always made a specialty of canary birds and gold fish and the showing has been materially increased in the new store.

OLD COUNCIL HOLDS LAST MEET TONIGHT

Ordinance Regulating Junk Dealers Will Come Up For Final Action.

Tonight the old city council holds its last session and bids farewell to Alderman Jackman and Murray and City Attorney Burpee. The bonds of the newly elected officers will be presented and passed upon and at a meeting to be held at the call of Mayor Hutchinson either some night this week or next Monday evening, the newly-elected will take their seats. Tonight the junk dealers' ordinance comes up for its third reading and passage. It is understood that important amendments relieving the second hand dealers of the close surveillance and heavy license fees contemplated in the original measure will be introduced. There will also be considerable routine business to transact.

LOUIS KENNERER FAILED TO KEEP SOLEMN PLEDGE

To Leave Liquor Alone and Was Punished Severely in Municipal Court Today.

"You didn't keep your pledge very well," said Judge Fifield to Louis Kennerer when he appeared in municipal court this morning to answer to the charge of drunkenness. "Complaints of your conduct have been coming in frequently of late. It is said that you have become intoxicated and have gone home and abused your mother." To this the prisoner answered: "I never spoke a cross word to my mother in my life." The court was not convinced and there was meted out to him a five days' jail sentence together with a fine of $4 and costs or fifteen additional days. Timothy Collins was fined $2 and costs for drunkenness and paid the same.

NEW OWNERS FOR FINE RESIDENCES

A. C. Hough Buys of Edwin Fifield and A. N. Jones of Andrew Pond.

This afternoon the sale of the Andrew Pond residence at 21 Milwaukee avenue to A. N. Jones was completed. The price paid was $5,700, and Mr. Jones expects to take possession the first of May. Mr. Pond is not yet decided as to his future residence. On Saturday A. C. Hough of the Hough Shade-Corporation purchased the Edwin Fifield residence at the corner of South Main street and Park Place, South. The sale price is private and the warranty deed shows the transfer was made for one dollar and other considerations. Mr. Hough will move into his new home about June 15. Mr. Fifield expects to remove to Beloit and will erect a beautiful country home near that city this summer. These two sales involve two of the finest residence properties in the city.

Subscribe for The Daily Gazette.

SOTHERN-MARLOWE COMPANY IN CITY

Passed Through on Special Train En Route to St. Paul to Chicago.

Shortly after five o'clock yesterday afternoon the much-talked-of theatrical company headed by E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe passed through here on a special train over the North-Western road, being en route from St. Paul to Chicago. The train was composed of two coaches and five baggage cars and remained in the city about ten minutes. The company will open a three weeks' engagement at the Illinois theatre this evening. The piece produced will be Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew" with Sothern as "Petruchio," and Miss Marlowe as "Katherine." This will be the first time these two stars have appeared in this play in Chicago, having used "The Merchant of Venice" and "Romeo and Juliet" thus far this season. E. H. Sothern appeared in this city on March 16, 1904. His vehicle was "The Proud Prince" and he was supported in it by Cecelia Loftus, Manager Myers of the Myers Grand expects to secure the Sothern-Marlowe company to open the 1906-'07 season here.

PROPHET CONDEMNED BY ARTHUR NEWCOMB

Former Janesville Man Says Zeal for Cause and Trust in Dowie Warped Judgment.

Leaves of Healing, Zion City's official magazine, published Saturday, gives a resume of the week's proceedings at Zion under the heading "John Alexander Dowie Rebuked for Sin and Suspended from Offices and Fellowship." Nothing is said of reported negotiations.

Arthur W. Newcomb, formerly of Janesville, in a signed confession as general associate editor of Zion publications, says:

"I wish to retract all that has ever appeared in Leaves of Healing or any other Zion publication over my initials that is contrary to the facts stated in the columns of this paper, especially references to the population of Zion City, the condition of Zion's financial affairs and the prosperity of the people of the city. Much of this was written with all sincerity, upon what I now believe to have been false information. I also make confession before God and all His people that I have written some of the exaggerations and misrepresentations that have appeared in the pages of Leaves of Healing. Zeal for a good cause had warped my standard of truthfulness."

"I hereby make confession also, that I have seen for over two years many glaring inconsistencies in the life and teachings of John Alexander Dowie, and have, nevertheless, continued to hold him up as a prophet and apostle of God. This I did in all sincerity. "Serious transgressions came to my notice, from time to time, but so great was my confidence in the honesty of intent and purity of motive of my leader that I passed many an agonizing hour searching my own heart to see whether it might not be evil in me that caused suspicions of him. I implore forgiveness from God and His people for all known and unknown wrongdoing."

CHARLES NORTON BUYS M'CLURE RESTAURANT

Former Owner Will Probably Re-enter the Dining-Car Service.

Negotiations for the sale of his restaurant business which had been in progress for some weeks were concluded by Harry L. McClure Saturday evening and the furnishings, good will, etc., at the corner of Milwaukee and Bluff streets were turned over to Charles Norton, who has been the chef there for several months past. Mr. McClure is to leave the city and will probably re-enter the dining-car service. Before locating in Janesville he was conductor on the dining-car which was attached to the C. & N. W. route between Janesville and Chicago. His departure will be regretted by a host of local friends. "Heine" McCrossen, one of the popular waiters at the restaurant, has decided to take advantage of a good opening in Chicago.

Mr. Con. McDonald Again in Charge of Myers Restaurant.

Mr. Con. McDonald, one of the best cooks in the country, returned to Janesville last week and this morning took charge of the Myers restaurant. John H. Myers, the proprietor, is fortunate in securing the services of Mr. McDonald, as he is long and favorable known as one of the best and most popular cooks that ever catered to Janesville restaurant patrons. He needs no introduction further than the simple statement that he is in business again and extends a cordial invitation to his old patrons to call and see him.

Notice

The firm of Eller & Clark is this day dissolved. Frank J. Eller will continue the business and pay all bills and collect accounts due said firm.

Dated April 14, 1906.

THINK A MINUTE...

Why pay $7 for a pair of ill-fitting gold spectacles when you can purchase same quality and same lenses properly adjusted and warranted to fit for $4 of

HALL &amp; SAYLES.

Fine New Line of BACK COMBS

KOEBELIN'S Jewelry and Music House, Hayes Block.

FOURTH WARD RACE HORSES WON WITH A LARGE SCORE

Yesterday afternoon on Bunker hill the Fourth Ward Race Horses defeated a team composed largely of second ward boys by a score of 55 to 3. Mr. Ryan and J. Doran formed the victorious team's battery, and Hindes and F. Rider the loser's battery.

NEWS OF A PERSONAL NATURE

Harold Dearborn came from Rockford to spend Easter Sunday in Janesville.

Miss Belle Chase of Milwaukee is the guest of Miss Chittenden.

Charles Galbraith came from Chicago to spend Easter Sunday in this city.

Miss Luella Byram is visiting friends in Rockford.

Walter Helms has had plans drawn for a new residence which he expects to erect on Racine street during the coming summer.

Victor Whitton came home from Chicago Saturday for a brief visit.

Mrs. M. Kennedy of Butte, Montana, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. Leary.

Mrs. A. P. Lovejoy entertains a small company this evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Williams of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Mrs. Fannie Murdoch left this morning for Brodhead to stay for several weeks.

Miss Mary Hickey was home from Milwaukee for Easter.

P. W. Boss of Johnson Creek, formerly of Milton, was here Saturday.

Mrs. M. Broderick and daughter Winifred of Brodhead visited in the city Saturday.

Robert Jensen was here from Beloit college Saturday.

Miss Ethel Fifield returned to Milwaukee this morning to resume her studies at the Normal school there.

Frank Ryan was home from Sacred Heart college of Watertown over Sunday.

Will Graves of Chicago spent Saturday and Sunday in the city.

Miss Irma Keller was home from the university during the spring recess.

The condition of Mrs. Victoria Potter which has been considered very serious for several days is slightly changed for the better. Mrs. Potter is still very ill.

Judge C. F. Osborn of Darlington is in the city today.

City Clerk A. E. Badger, who has been ill with the quinsy for a few days past, was able to resume his duties today.

Arthur C. Clinton was in the city yesterday.

George H. Perry of Rockford was a Janesville visitor yesterday.

Miss Sarah Tillotson of Clinton spent Easter Sunday in Janesville.

J. P. Mooney and C. J. Wagner of Brodhead were in the city yesterday.

M. Anderson, H. Harrison, and Helmer Mellum of Stoughton were Janesville visitors yesterday.

Mrs. Charles D. Atwood and Mrs. Andrew J. Ward of Madison spent Easter Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Atwood on Park Place.

R. McKinney and E. J. Dudley of Rockford were Janesville visitors yesterday.

John Burns of Beloit was in the city yesterday.

W. H. Eccles of Chicago, formerly in the cement block business here, was an Easter visitor in Janesville.

Triumph Camp No. 4034 will meet at Good Templars' hall at eight o'clock last evening.

Mrs. Alice Moon of Brodhead was the guest of relatives and friends here Sunday and today.

Miss Mae Hayes was home from the university during the spring intermission.

Jesse Miller of Brodhead will return home this evening after a two days' visit with his cousin, Miss Olive Miller.

CHARLES NORTON BUYS M'CLURE RESTAURANT

Former Owner Will Probably Re-enter the Dining-Car Service.

Negotiations for the sale of his restaurant business which had been in progress for some weeks were concluded by Harry L. McClure Saturday evening and the furnishings, good will, etc., at the corner of Milwaukee and Bluff streets were turned over to Charles Norton, who has been the chef there for several months past. Mr. McClure is to leave the city and will probably re-enter the dining-car service. Before locating in Janesville he was conductor on the dining-car which was attached to the C. & N. W. route between Janesville and Chicago. His departure will be regretted by a host of local friends. "Heine" McCrossen, one of the popular waiters at the restaurant, has decided to take advantage of a good opening in Chicago.

Mr. Con. McDonald Again in Charge of Myers Restaurant.

Mr. Con. McDonald, one of the best cooks in the country, returned to Janesville last week and this morning took charge of the Myers restaurant. John H. Myers, the proprietor, is fortunate in securing the services of Mr. McDonald, as he is long and favorable known as one of the best and most popular cooks that ever catered to Janesville restaurant patrons. He needs no introduction further than the simple statement that he is in business again and extends a cordial invitation to his old patrons to call and see him.

Notice

The firm of Eller & Clark is this day dissolved. Frank J. Eller will continue the business and pay all bills and collect accounts due said firm.

Dated April 14, 1906.

THINK A MINUTE...

Why pay $7 for a pair of ill-fitting gold spectacles when you can purchase same quality and same lenses properly adjusted and warranted to fit for $4 of

HALL &amp; SAYLES.

Fine New Line of BACK COMBS

KOEBELIN'S Jewelry and Music House, Hayes Block.

FOURTH WARD RACE HORSES WON WITH A LARGE SCORE

Yesterday afternoon on Bunker hill the Fourth Ward Race Horses defeated a team composed largely of second ward boys by a score of 55 to 3. Mr. Ryan and J. Doran formed the victorious team's battery, and Hindes and F. Rider the loser's battery.

OBITUARY

Mrs. E. L. Dimock
A message received from Detroit, Mich., Saturday night, conveyed the sad tidings of the death of Mrs. E. L. Dimock, who resided in Janesville many years ago. Before her marriage Mrs. Dimock was Miss Maria Clark. She was a sister of N. O. Clark of the mercantile firm of Dimock & Clark, which conducted one of the important business houses during Janesville's early days. A sister, Miss Alma Clark, and a nephew, Loren Clark, both of Detroit, Mich., are left to mourn her loss.

G. H. Parsons
The remains of the late G. H. Parsons, whose death occurred at the County farm last Friday night, were shipped to Delavan this morning for funeral services and burial.

Buy it in Janesville.

MISS DEWOLFE, of Des Moines, Iowa, will demonstrate the superior quality of Queen of the North Flour at the Lowell Grocery every day this week.

Rug Factory and Carpet Cleaning Works

FARMER BROS., Props. 49 N. Main St.

Two Factories: Rockford, Ill., and Janesville, Wis.

On all orders taken before April 15 a REDUCTION OF 10 PER CENT will be made.

Phone No. 3324.

CLARENCE TWO, Manager

...THE... ADVANCE

5c Cigar

Everybody is smoking it and they all admit it is one of the best 5c cigars ever placed on the market. If you are not already a friend of THE ADVANCE try one and you will be. For sale at all cigar stands.

SPRING WALL PAPER BARGAINS

We can positively save you money. By comparing what we have in variety of selections, quality and new styles you will find this the best place to make your purchases.

Specials in tapestries, two-tones, stripes and florals, papers in rich colorings suitable for rooms of all kinds.

Big line 4 cents per roll up.

Burlap—any color.

Special books from M. H. Birge and Robt. Graves Co.

SKELLY'S BOOK STORE

Golden Palace Flour $1.15

White Star Flour 1.05

Best Kerosene Oil 10c gal

Plenty Fresh Eggs 15 cts doz

HESPER

—BY—HAMLIN GARLAND

COPYRIGHT, 1905, BY HAMLIN GARLAND

CHAPTER XXVI.

ANN, being measurably relieved from anxiety by Louis' subsiding pulse, permitted herself a closer study of the brusque and ominous movements taking place in the scope of her window. She studied Raymond, in earnest but apparently unexpected conference with his workmen. No word of their low utterance reached her ears, but she observed that they organized into squads as if in obedience to some command and that each man armed himself and that each face was grim or recklessly smiling. That they formed her guard she knew, and this in itself ought to have been thrilling. But it was not—it seemed absurd.

Raymond did not show himself again to her until about 9 o'clock of the evening, when he entered the sickroom and said quietly to Braide: "Doctor, you better go to bed if the patient will permit. You may be badly needed early tomorrow morning."

"Very well," acquiesced Braide, convinced that a closer tie than friendship united Ann and the young man and that they desired to be alone.

The door had hardly closed behind the young physician when Ann turned to Raymond and imperiously said: "You must not try to evade me. I want to know what is threatening. Tell me!"

"The camp is wild," he admitted, feeling the resentment in her voice, "and I don't see how a clash can be avoided so long as Munro is in command and keeps his present temper. But you need give no thought to that. All my men are on guard tonight, and whatever happens, this cabin is safe."

"I like you to be honest with me," she said, more gently. "I'm not a child, and I'm not a timid person."

"You shall know," he answered, taking a seat before the fire. He had never been more admirable than at that moment. "My theory is that the sheriff's forces are eager to storm the hill before the governor has a chance to interfere and protect his pets, that is the way they put it. If the attack is made a desperate struggle will follow. Probably the deputies will try to carry the fortification direct. Meanwhile Kelly and I have drawn up and forwarded to the governor a long telegram signed by the leading independent, reciting our disaster and demanding immediate interference on his part, and we are hoping to hear from him before midnight. I have also wired Barnett to warn the sheriff of your presence here and that we are guarding you. I think Don is with the deputies. If he is he will see that this cabin remains outside the field of operation."

"Where is Captain Munro?"

"His viceroy is camped on the north slope, but may engage the enemy at any moment, for Jack is quite as eager as the sheriff to win first blood. If it were not for the possible injury of innocent men and women I would say let them fight it out. Each camp is quite as crazy and lawless as the other. Now you have the truth. I have concealed nothing from you. I will even tell you that Munro has promised to come down for a final conference with the independents and that we are still hoping to persuade him to leave the camp."

"The sick boy stirred uneasily and called faintly, and Ann went to him and bent above him tenderly. 'Here I am, Biddie. Are you better?' 'Oh, I'm so hot! Take that blanket off me.'"

Raymond looked at Ann. "Shall I fetch the blanket?"

"The doctor had just left the room."

"The sick boy stirred uneasily and called faintly, and Ann went to him and bent above him tenderly. 'Here I am, Biddie. Are you better?' 'Oh, I'm so hot! Take that blanket off me.'"

Raymond looked at Ann. "Shall I fetch the blanket?"

"The doctor had just left the room."

"The sick boy stirred uneasily and called faintly, and Ann went to him and bent above him tenderly. 'Here I am, Biddie. Are you better?' 'Oh, I'm so hot! Take that blanket off me.'"

Raymond looked at Ann. "Shall I fetch the blanket?"

"The doctor had just left the room."

"The sick boy stirred uneasily and called faintly, and Ann went to him and bent above him tenderly. 'Here I am, Biddie. Are you better?' 'Oh, I'm so hot! Take that blanket off me.'"

Raymond looked at Ann. "Shall I fetch the blanket?"

"The doctor had just left the room."

"The sick boy stirred uneasily and called faintly, and Ann went to him and bent above him tenderly. 'Here I am, Biddie. Are you better?' 'Oh, I'm so hot! Take that blanket off me.'"

Raymond looked at Ann. "Shall I fetch the blanket?"

"The doctor had just left the room."

of water to the boy's lips. "What time is it?" he asked as he fell back upon his pillow.

"Going on 10 o'clock."

"Has the light come off yet?"

Raymond was cautious. "No, the camp is quiet."

"He insisted on talking. 'I hope they won't fight till I get over this cold. It's hard luck to be here. What day is it? How long have I been sick? You should have seen Jack when he rode up and stopped the man.' In this way his mind leaped and danced for an hour, but he grew drowsy at last and went away into sleep."

Ann spoke first. "Poor boy! He will always feel defrauded to think he is missing all the drama."

"Your father must have been such another enthusiast. I liked his name for you."

She colored. "That was the only thing I had to reproach him for. I regretted it."

"Oh, Rob, don't kill him!" she called, heedless of Louis. Opening the door, she cried again, "Don't, please don't!"

Kelly was binding the captain's feet while Raymond, with a lance on his chest and one hand at his throat, looked up at Ann as she stood in the doorway and said: "Please go in. We are doing this for his own good. We won't hurt him. He'll thank us for it when he understands our motive."

Munro, like a trapped wildcat, snapped at his captor, but Raymond's long fingers prevented him. "Now, listen, Jack. You did me a good turn today, and I'm going to do as much for you. I'm going to save you from state's prison against your own fool's will. You're going to leave camp tonight, dead sure thing! And you might as well go quietly. If you don't, we'll pack you on your horse like a roll of blankets. Will you be quiet? Will you ride your horse or must we tie you?"

Again the frenzied man renewed his struggle. Blindly, ferociously, like an animal, deaf to all reason, acknowledging no law but that of force, he writhed, beating the ground. His gasping breath was painful to hear. At last Braide, who had been picking handily at his medicine case, suddenly opened the door and ran out.

"Here is where the man of medicine comes in," he called jovially, and thrust a folded handkerchief beneath Munro's nostrils. "Let him breathe, Raymond," he said quietly. "It'll do him good."

Munro's knotted muscles almost instantly relaxed, his hands fell inert, his head turned quietly to one side, and his face became as peaceful as a sleeping child.

"What have you done?" whispered Kelly excitedly.

Braide laughed. "Hypnotized him. You can do as you wish with him now, but work quick."

"Much obliged, doctor," said Raymond. "Take him up, Matt. Let's put him away while he sleeps. He'll go by freight now." As they laid hold of the corpulent figure he added to Ann and to Braide, "Not a word of this to any one!"

A knock at the door startled Ann. But the visitor was only one of Munro's men, deferential, almost timid, in her presence.

"Excuse me, but has the captain been here this evening?" he asked politely.

The doctor quickly answered, "Yes, but he went away again almost immediately."

"If you see him, just tell him we need him on the hill."

"I'll do so gladly."

"Much obliged." The messenger withdrew, and they soon heard him gallop swiftly away, and all became silent.

At Ann's insistent request Braide went back to his couch, and she was again alone, waiting for Raymond's return.

The situation in the great drama was now quite clear to her mental vision. She could see the small army waiting below, foolishly eager for the coming of the dawn, and it was not difficult to imagine the excitement and consternation in Munro's forces when their leader failed to appear. She understood also something of the panic in Bozle and in the valley and realized that through the night the news of the impending assault on the peak was flying, loosed along aerial ways by the tapping fingers of a hundred deft, dispassionate operators.

(To Be Continued.)

LOW RATES TO LOS ANGELES

Via the North-Western line. An excursion rate on one first-class limited fare for round trip, will be in effect from all stations April 25 to May 5, inclusive, with favorable return limits, on account of Imperial Council, Nobles of Mystic Shrine. Three fast trains through to California daily. "The Los Angeles Limited," electric lighted throughout, via the New Salt Lake route, with drawing room and tourist sleeping cars. "The Overland Limited," electric lighted throughout, less than three days' enroute. Another fast daily train is "The China and Japan Fast Mail" with drawing room and tourist sleeping cars. For itineraries and full information apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

TO CALIFORNIA
SECOND CLASS RATES

Homeseekers' Excursion to the Northwest, West and Southwest. Via the North-Western line. Excursion tickets at greatly reduced rates are on sale to the territory indicated above. Standard and Tourist Sleeping cars, free reclining chair cars and "The Best of Everything." For dates of sale and full particulars apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

Raymond's right arm encircled the young leader's waist, pinioning the deadly light hand to his side, while Kelly, seizing the almost equally skillful left, whipped the young desperado's

revolver from his belt.

For a moment the fangless rattlesnake was bewildered. "What you mean, Rob?" he asked ominously.

"Come outside, Jack. Don't make a row for the lady's sake. We want to talk to you."

"Let go of me," he retorted, writhing in Raymond's clutch. In the midst of this he grinned at Kelly. "I know these arms. What's your game, Rob?"

"Come outside and I'll tell you," pleaded Raymond.

The sudden brain of the reckless leader was waking up again, and, with a bow to Ann, he said: "Sorry to 'sturb you, but I must take these men outside and kill 'em. See you again soon."

Raymond released his prisoner and stepped through the door in advance of him, but as Munro followed and stood for an instant on the step, peering into the darkness, Raymond seized him again and, with a furious twist, threw him to the earth and fell upon him in a terrible struggle. Matt, mindful of Ann and the boy, closed the door. The girl, not daring to look out, could only stand with nerveless limbs and pounding heart and listen. Once the desperate man uttered a gasping snarl, but it was cut short by a merciless band, and all was still. Then her composure gave way.

"Oh, Rob, don't kill him!" she called, heedless of Louis. Opening the door, she cried again, "Don't, please don't!"

Kelly was binding the captain's feet while Raymond, with a lance on his chest and one hand at his throat, looked up at Ann as she stood in the doorway and said: "Please go in. We are doing this for his own good. We won't hurt him. He'll thank us for it when he understands our motive."

Munro, like a trapped wildcat, snapped at his captor, but Raymond's long fingers prevented him. "Now, listen, Jack. You did me a good turn today, and I'm going to do as much for you. I'm going to save you from state's prison against your own fool's will. You're going to leave camp tonight, dead sure thing! And you might as well go quietly. If you don't, we'll pack you on your horse like a roll of blankets. Will you be quiet? Will you ride your horse or must we tie you?"

Again the frenzied man renewed his struggle. Blindly, ferociously, like an animal, deaf to all reason, acknowledging no law but that of force, he writhed, beating the ground. His gasping breath was painful to hear. At last Braide, who had been picking handily at his medicine case, suddenly opened the door and ran out.

"Here is where the man of medicine comes in," he called jovially, and thrust a folded handkerchief beneath Munro's nostrils. "Let him breathe, Raymond," he said quietly. "It'll do him good."

Munro's knotted muscles almost instantly relaxed, his hands fell inert, his head turned quietly to one side, and his face became as peaceful as a sleeping child.

"What have you done?" whispered Kelly excitedly.

Braide laughed. "Hypnotized him. You can do as you wish with him now, but work quick."

"Much obliged, doctor," said Raymond. "Take him up, Matt. Let's put him away while he sleeps. He'll go by freight now." As they laid hold of the corpulent figure he added to Ann and to Braide, "Not a word of this to any one!"

A knock at the door startled Ann. But the visitor was only one of Munro's men, deferential, almost timid, in her presence.

"Excuse me, but has the captain been here this evening?" he asked politely.

The doctor quickly answered, "Yes, but he went away again almost immediately."

"If you see him, just tell him we need him on the hill."

"I'll do so gladly."

"Much obliged." The messenger withdrew, and they soon heard him gallop swiftly away, and all became silent.

At Ann's insistent request Braide went back to his couch, and she was again alone, waiting for Raymond's return.

The situation in the great drama was now quite clear to her mental vision. She could see the small army waiting below, foolishly eager for the coming of the dawn, and it was not difficult to imagine the excitement and consternation in Munro's forces when their leader failed to appear. She understood also something of the panic in Bozle and in the valley and realized that through the night the news of the impending assault on the peak was flying, loosed along aerial ways by the tapping fingers of a hundred deft, dispassionate operators.

(To Be Continued.)

LOW RATES TO LOS ANGELES

Via the North-Western line. An excursion rate on one first-class limited fare for round trip, will be in effect from all stations April 25 to May 5, inclusive, with favorable return limits, on account of Imperial Council, Nobles of Mystic Shrine. Three fast trains through to California daily. "The Los Angeles Limited," electric lighted throughout, via the New Salt Lake route, with drawing room and tourist sleeping cars. "The Overland Limited," electric lighted throughout, less than three days' enroute. Another fast daily train is "The China and Japan Fast Mail" with drawing room and tourist sleeping cars. For itineraries and full information apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

TO CALIFORNIA
SECOND CLASS RATES

Homeseekers' Excursion to the Northwest, West and Southwest. Via the North-Western line. Excursion tickets at greatly reduced rates are on sale to the territory indicated above. Standard and Tourist Sleeping cars, free reclining chair cars and "The Best of Everything." For dates of sale and full particulars apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

Raymond's right arm encircled the young leader's waist, pinioning the deadly light hand to his side, while Kelly, seizing the almost equally skillful left, whipped the young desperado's

revolver from his belt.

For a moment the fangless rattlesnake was bewildered. "What you mean, Rob?" he asked ominously.

"Come outside, Jack. Don't make a row for the lady's sake. We want to talk to you."

"Let go of me," he retorted, writhing in Raymond's clutch. In the midst of this he grinned at Kelly. "I know these arms. What's your game, Rob?"

"Come outside and I'll tell you," pleaded Raymond.

The sudden brain of the reckless leader was waking up again, and, with a bow to Ann, he said: "Sorry to 'sturb you, but I must take these men outside and kill 'em. See you again soon."

Raymond released his prisoner and stepped through the door in advance of him, but as Munro followed and stood for an instant on the step, peering into the darkness, Raymond seized him again and, with a furious twist, threw him to the earth and fell upon him in a terrible struggle. Matt, mindful of Ann and the boy, closed the door. The girl, not daring to look out, could only stand with nerveless limbs and pounding heart and listen. Once the desperate man uttered a gasping snarl, but it was cut short by a merciless band, and all was still. Then her composure gave way.

"Oh, Rob, don't kill him!" she called, heedless of Louis. Opening the door, she cried again, "Don't, please don't!"

Kelly was binding the captain's feet while Raymond, with a lance on his chest and one hand at his throat, looked up at Ann as she stood in the doorway and said: "Please go in. We are doing this for his own good. We won't hurt him. He'll thank us for it when he understands our motive."

Munro, like a trapped wildcat, snapped at his captor, but Raymond's long fingers prevented him. "Now, listen, Jack. You did me a good turn today, and I'm going to do as much for you. I'm going to save you from state's prison against your own fool's will. You're going to leave camp tonight, dead sure thing! And you might as well go quietly. If you don't, we'll pack you on your horse like a roll of blankets. Will you be quiet? Will you ride your horse or must we tie you?"

Again the frenzied man renewed his struggle. Blindly, ferociously, like an animal, deaf to all reason, acknowledging no law but that of force, he writhed, beating the ground. His gasping breath was painful to hear. At last Braide, who had been picking handily at his medicine case, suddenly opened the door and ran out.

"Here is where the man of medicine comes in," he called jovially, and thrust a folded handkerchief beneath Munro's nostrils. "Let him breathe, Raymond," he said quietly. "It'll do him good."

Munro's knotted muscles almost instantly relaxed, his hands fell inert, his head turned quietly to one side, and his face became as peaceful as a sleeping child.

"What have you done?" whispered Kelly excitedly.

Braide laughed. "Hypnotized him. You can do as you wish with him now, but work quick."

"Much obliged, doctor," said Raymond. "Take him up, Matt. Let's put him away while he sleeps. He'll go by freight now." As they laid hold of the corpulent figure he added to Ann and to Braide, "Not a word of this to any one!"

A knock at the door startled Ann. But the visitor was only one of Munro's men, deferential, almost timid, in her presence.

"Excuse me, but has the captain been here this evening?" he asked politely.

The doctor quickly answered, "Yes, but he went away again almost immediately."

"If you see him, just tell him we need him on the hill."

"I'll do so gladly."

"Much obliged." The messenger withdrew, and they soon heard him gallop swiftly away, and all became silent.

At Ann's insistent request Braide went back to his couch, and she was again alone, waiting for Raymond's return.

The situation in the great drama was now quite clear to her mental vision. She could see the small army waiting below, foolishly eager for the coming of the dawn, and it was not difficult to imagine the excitement and consternation in Munro's forces when their leader failed to appear. She understood also something of the panic in Bozle and in the valley and realized that through the night the news of the impending assault on the peak was flying, loosed along aerial ways by the tapping fingers of a hundred deft, dispassionate operators.

(To Be Continued.)

LOW RATES TO LOS ANGELES

Via the North-Western line. An excursion rate on one first-class limited fare for round trip, will be in effect from all stations April 25 to May 5, inclusive, with favorable return limits, on account of Imperial Council, Nobles of Mystic Shrine. Three fast trains through to California daily. "The Los Angeles Limited," electric lighted throughout, via the New Salt Lake route, with drawing room and tourist sleeping cars. "The Overland Limited," electric lighted throughout, less than three days' enroute. Another fast daily train is "The China and Japan Fast Mail" with drawing room and tourist sleeping cars. For itineraries and full information apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

TO CALIFORNIA
SECOND CLASS RATES

Homeseekers' Excursion to the Northwest, West and Southwest. Via the North-Western line. Excursion tickets at greatly reduced rates are on sale to the territory indicated above. Standard and Tourist Sleeping cars, free reclining chair cars and "The Best of Everything." For dates of sale and full particulars apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

Raymond's right arm encircled the young leader's waist, pinioning the deadly light hand to his side, while Kelly, seizing the almost equally skillful left, whipped the young desperado's

revolver from his belt.

For a moment the fangless rattlesnake was bewildered. "What you mean, Rob?" he asked ominously.

"Come outside, Jack. Don't make a row for the lady's sake. We want to talk to you."

"Let go of me," he retorted, writhing in Raymond's clutch. In the midst of this he grinned at Kelly. "I know these arms. What's your game, Rob?"

"Come outside and I'll tell you," pleaded Raymond.

The sudden brain of the reckless leader was waking up again, and, with a bow to Ann, he said: "Sorry to 'sturb you, but I must take these men outside and kill 'em. See you again soon."

Raymond released his prisoner and stepped through the door in advance of him, but as Munro followed and stood for an instant on the step, peering into the darkness, Raymond seized him again and, with a furious twist, threw him to the earth and fell upon him in a terrible struggle. Matt, mindful of Ann and the boy, closed the door. The girl, not daring to look out, could only stand with nerveless limbs and pounding heart and listen. Once the desperate man uttered a gasping snarl, but it was cut short by a merciless band, and all was still. Then her composure gave way.

"Oh, Rob, don't kill him!" she called, heedless of Louis. Opening the door, she cried again, "Don't, please don't!"

Kelly was binding the captain's feet while Raymond, with a lance on his chest and one hand at his throat, looked up at Ann as she stood in the doorway and said: "Please go in. We are doing this for his own good. We won't hurt him. He'll thank us for it when he understands our motive."

Munro, like a trapped wildcat, snapped at his captor, but Raymond's long fingers prevented him. "Now, listen, Jack. You did me a good turn today, and I'm going to do as much for you. I'm going to save you from state's prison against your own fool's will. You're going to leave camp tonight, dead sure thing! And you might as well go quietly. If you don't, we'll pack you on your horse like a roll of blankets. Will you be quiet? Will you ride your horse or must we tie you?"

Again the frenzied man renewed his struggle. Blindly, ferociously, like an animal, deaf to all reason, acknowledging no law but that of force, he writhed, beating the ground. His gasping breath was painful to hear. At last Braide, who had been picking handily at his medicine case, suddenly opened the door and ran out.

"Here is where the man of medicine comes in," he called jovially, and thrust a folded handkerchief beneath Munro's nostrils. "Let him breathe, Raymond," he said quietly. "It'll do him good."

Munro's knotted muscles almost instantly relaxed, his hands fell inert, his head turned quietly to one side, and his face became as peaceful as a sleeping child.

"What have you done?" whispered Kelly excitedly.

Braide laughed. "Hypnotized him. You can do as you wish with him now, but work quick."

"Much obliged, doctor," said Raymond. "Take him up, Matt. Let's put him away while he sleeps. He'll go by freight now." As they laid hold of the corpulent figure he added to Ann and to Braide, "Not a word of this to any one!"

A knock at the door startled Ann. But the visitor was only one of Munro's men, deferential, almost timid, in her presence.

"Excuse me, but has the captain been here this evening?" he asked politely.

The doctor quickly answered, "Yes, but he went away again almost immediately."

"If you see him, just tell him we need him on the hill."

"I'll do so gladly."

"Much obliged." The messenger withdrew, and they soon heard him gallop swiftly away, and all became silent.

At Ann's insistent request Braide went back to his couch, and she was again alone, waiting for Raymond's return.

The situation in the great drama was now quite clear to her mental vision. She could see the small army waiting below, foolishly eager for the coming of the dawn, and it was not difficult to imagine the excitement and consternation in Munro's forces when their leader failed to appear. She understood also something of the panic in Bozle and in the valley and realized that through the night the news of the impending assault on the peak was flying, loosed along aerial ways by the tapping fingers of a hundred deft, dispassionate operators.

(To Be Continued.)

LOW RATES TO LOS ANGELES

Via the North-Western line. An excursion rate on one first-class limited fare for round trip, will be in effect from all stations April 25 to May 5, inclusive, with favorable return limits, on account of Imperial Council, Nobles of Mystic Shrine. Three fast trains through to California daily. "The Los Angeles Limited," electric lighted throughout, via the New Salt Lake route, with drawing room and tourist sleeping cars. "The Overland Limited," electric lighted throughout, less than three days' enroute. Another fast daily train is "The China and Japan Fast Mail" with drawing room and tourist sleeping cars. For itineraries and full information apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

TO CALIFORNIA
SECOND CLASS RATES

Homeseekers' Excursion to the Northwest, West and Southwest. Via the North-Western line. Excursion tickets at greatly reduced rates are on sale to the territory indicated above. Standard and Tourist Sleeping cars, free reclining chair cars and "The Best of Everything." For dates of sale and full particulars apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

Raymond's right arm encircled the young leader's waist, pinioning the deadly light hand to his side, while Kelly, seizing the almost equally skillful left, whipped the young desperado's

revolver from his belt.

For a moment the fangless rattlesnake was bewildered. "What you mean, Rob?" he asked ominously.

"Come outside, Jack. Don't make a row for the lady's sake. We want to talk to you."

"Let go of me," he retorted, writhing in Raymond's clutch. In the midst of this he grinned at Kelly. "I know these arms. What's your game, Rob?"

"Come outside and I'll tell you," pleaded Raymond.

The sudden brain of the reckless leader was waking up again, and, with a bow to Ann, he said: "Sorry to 'sturb you, but I must take these men outside and kill 'em. See you again soon."

Raymond released his prisoner and stepped through the door in advance of him, but as Munro followed and stood for an instant on the step, peering into the darkness, Raymond seized him again and, with a furious twist, threw him to the earth and fell upon him in a terrible struggle. Matt, mindful of Ann and the boy, closed the door. The girl, not daring to look out, could only stand with nerveless limbs and pounding heart and listen. Once the desperate man uttered a gasping snarl, but it was cut short by a merciless band, and all was still. Then her composure gave way.

"Oh, Rob, don't kill him!" she called, heedless of Louis. Opening the door, she cried again, "Don't, please don't!"

Kelly was binding the captain's feet while Raymond, with a lance on his chest and one hand at his throat, looked up at Ann as she stood in the doorway and said: "Please go in. We are doing this for his own good. We won't hurt him. He'll thank us for it when he understands our motive."

Munro, like a trapped wildcat, snapped at his captor, but Raymond's long fingers prevented him. "Now

Home Health Club

By DAVID H. REEDER, Ph.D., M.D.
Janesville, Wis.

WARTS.

Because of such a pressing demand for something on the subject of warts, I have concluded to give you a short article on that well-known affliction. This is an affection with which all are familiar, and most of us from experience. It is not painful, nor does it seem to be directly or indirectly responsible for any particular derangements, but it is disgusting! "Ay, there's the rub. It is entirely natural to desire to be handsome, and he who scoffs at the assertion is either a hypocrite or abnormal."

Many a woman, otherwise beautiful, is distressingly disfigured by numerous repellant warts. They may be on her shapely hands, around the smiling lips, or on various other portions of her person.

I presume that most of you have heard ways of curing this trouble, as there is scarcely a person who ever had a wart that has not had various ridiculous methods of cure proposed. It is very amusing, indeed, to hear some person of accredited intelligence tell of the magic cure for warts which they positively know to be efficacious. "I would not have believed it if I had not seen it." To this last expression, which is used in about the same capacity as a woman's vindictive argument—"because"—I think I should always answer in the language of my facetious uncle, "Neither would I."

There was a period in the world's history when superstition was the order of the day, but time is supposed to have eliminated it. It would seem, however, from some of the methods of cure exploited by different people that it still exists. Take, for example, the period of witchcraft in our colonial history, and note the methods employed at Salem, Massachusetts. Doubtless all of you are familiar with the particulars regarding this period. For the benefit of those who are not, however, I will describe one of their methods of determining whether or not a suspected subject was guilty of being a witch or not. The party to be tested was thrown into the river, and if she scrambled out alive she was adjudged guilty and treated accordingly; if she drowned she was thus proved innocent. Thus it will be seen that if a person was ever accused of being a witch, death was inevitable.

It seems incredible that people should ever have been such barbarous things as this, and yet when we hear of some of the superstitions indulged in to-day our credulity is not so overtaxed after all.

Not so very long ago I had an old lady confide the following to me, after impressing me with the unusual favor she was conferring by imparting such very valuable information:

To remove warts magically, all that she claimed was necessary was to go secretly to a neighbor's meathouse and secure therefrom a piece of fat meat; then leave the place without once looking back, a la Lot's wife (with the penalty of failure to cure in case of disobedience to this part of the rule) and rub over the wart, or warts, with the meat, and then throw it back over the left shoulder.

I have not very many comments to make regarding this method of cure, except to suggest that the subject wear a coat-of-mail and be prepared for the worst. For it may be that the particular neighbor upon whom you have conferred the honor of being permitted to supply the meat has been rather tired with this sort of procedure, or it may be, would misinterpret your mission, and unchain the bulldog, or even employ a horse pistol or a musket. I repeat it, when you are about to undertake this treatment, don a coat-of-mail and be prepared for the worst.

Another method of cure which I have often heard solemnly declared to be of particular merit is the dropping of three beans down a well. I am of the opinion that the dropping of three beans (and a great many more) into a pot would be more generally satisfactory—and would remove just as many warts.

Still another method—one which my own grandmother told me of—is that of pricking the wart until it bleeds, dipping seven sulphur matches into the blood and secreting them in separate places. I was a boy of eleven when my grandmother advised me to use this method of procedure to remove several seed warts which decorated my hands.

Grandmother supplied me with the matches, for I was forbidden to carry them. I pricked the largest and ugliest wart, and dipped each of the seven sulphur matches into the bright red blood. I then began to search for a place to hide them. I decided to hide the first one in an old log house which was then used for a sort of woodshed and storeroom, my grandparents having built them a frame structure some years previous.

I held six of the matches in my left hand, and in my right the one which I was to hide. I began searching about for a suitable place, but was distracted from my work by a paper lying under some boards which contained a number of comic pictures. I pulled it out and sat down among some shavings, chips, old shingles, etc., to look at the pictures. This is where I did wrong. My grandfather happened in, and I, being absorbed with the pictures did not notice him. He saw the paper, the shavings, etc., and my treatment to youths, because of the liability of such disastrous results befalling them as did me. To older folks I need say nothing.

These are few of the many, many superstitions that prevail even to-day regarding the removal of warts. But I am sure none of the Home Health Club members will depend upon them. How many of you know what causes warts? When all the functions of the body are being properly performed the worn-out portions disengage, and their place is taken by new material. This is more noticeable with the skin than other parts of the body, because there is a better opportunity to observe it.

Well, this being true, suppose that certain particles do not disengage, nor become entirely dead, and are merely pushed up by the new ones which take their places. This process continues until quite an embolism is formed. This is a wart. It is caused by the particles which should die, and be disengaged, clinging tenaciously to life and their position.

The thing which is necessary to remove them, then, regardless of their particular kind or location, is to complete their death, when they will disappear. How to accomplish this is very simple and can be performed by anyone. Any wart can be removed by applying any of the following remedies, as I shall direct:

Take an old tooth brush, or something of that kind, and apply Lagol's solution of iodine to the crown of the wart, two or three times daily. This will require about two weeks to remove the wart. It will disappear gradually, and you will hardly realize that it is going, until it is gone.

Another equally meritorious remedy, to be applied, just as the above, is a solution of concentrated acetic acid, one part to five parts of water. Apply until the wart is removed. It requires about the same length of time as the Lagol's solution of iodine.

Stick a needle through the wart and then heat one end of the needle red hot. The wart turns white and disappears.

These remedies never fail to produce the desired results, and I am sure that club members will find them just what they have been looking for, and will not be disappointed by a trial.

CLUB NOTES.

If Mrs. J. G. Haney will write again giving her name and address in full I will cheerfully answer her letter.

Minnesota.—Dr. David H. Reeder, Laporte, Indiana. Dear Doctor: Having been something of an invalid I have been able to derive a great deal of benefit from your lectures as well as from contributory notes, which are always interesting. You have many times told us that you are pleased to hear from those that have been helped. I will therefore add my little share. Just before your lecture on night sweats appeared, I became greatly troubled in this way—your red pepper-vinegar treatment was a perfect success; when taken internally it is also an aid to digestion. I also tried the turpentine treatment for catarrh, and firmly believe it persisted in it would cure this disease. It certainly so greatly improves the condition that it well repays the trouble of using it. I have now abandoned the use of stimulants, and am able to handle three square meals a day. Again gratefully thanking you for all of your good advice, I am, very truly yours, M. N.

I wish to thank you for the suggestions you have made and am glad to give the Home Health Club readers the benefit of your experience.

All readers of this publication are at liberty to inquire for any information pertaining to the subject of health. Address all communications to H. H. C. or Dr. D. H. Reeder Laporte, Ind., and contain name and address and postage.

Bound to Get Something.

Like other businesses, the tramp profession has to keep moving, and enterprise enters into his calculation as much as into a member of any other business.

One strolled up to a journalist's house the other day. That was a mistake. Had he known it was the domicile of a press man, he would not have wasted his time. Being there, however, he made the best of it, and asked for a meal.

"No food to spare," he was told. "Got an old coat?" "No." "Pair of boots?" "No; only those I'm wearing." "An old shirt?" "No." "Well, a piece of bread, then?" "Afraid not."

"The tramp's chin fell on his chest in thought. Then he produced a small album.

"Well," he said, "if you ain't got nothing else, let's have your oryograph!"

Bad Smellers.

At a recent smelling competition in London only 6.72 per cent. of the competitors succeeded in distinguishing the odors of common oils. Those most easily identified were camphor, pepper-mint, vanilla and cloves; those least recognized were hemlock and lavender.

It Was.

Wearily One (jovially)—Fine morning, judge!
The Judge (genially)—Yes, indeed—ten and aosts.—Cleveland Leader.

Amusement in Singapore.

An advertisement in the Singapore Free Press: "Mohammed Ben. Ali Jusuf begs to announce to nobility and Cairo smart set that he has opened high-class restaurant at No. 3, Sharia Manakir Muski. Everything A and dam cheap. Prices quite wonderful. N. B.—Delectable music and dancing ladies every evening."

FREAK GERMAN STAMPS.

Pair from Valuable New York Collection Bring an Extraordinary Price.

A rare pair of German five-pennig stamps in the A. H. Scholle collection sold for $85 at the closing sale on a recent evening, says the New York Times. The stamps were unused, the blue Reichs Post of 1890, which never were put in circulation. The color of the five pennig of this issue is green. Several years ago a customer of a Berlin stamp dealer showed him one of the stamps that was blue. The stamp dealer took it to the post office authorities and asked if they had issued the stamp in that color. They had not. The color was due to a chemical change. To prove this theory a special sheet of 100 five-pennig stamps in blue was issued and presented to the Royal Postal museum, which adds to its collection all oddities it can get. The sale of 20 of those stamps through a dealer to collectors raised a storm in the Berlin Stamp society. The government issued an order that no more museum stamps be sold under any condition. Of the 20 blue stamps sold six are in this country.

A used pair of the nine schilling Hamburg issue of 1853 brought $42; an unused two-cent green Labuan, issue of 1879, $17; an unused one-schilling Bahama, issue of 1862, $22; and a used four-centimes, Swiss federal, issue of 1849-50, $61.

WHERE FISH ARE CHEAP.

In Florida and Cuban Markets Fine Varieties Sell at Low Prices.

Commissioner George W. Bowers, of the bureau of fisheries, returned lately from Florida and Cuba, where he went to study the culture of sponges and the marketing of fish in that community, reports the Washington Post. "I have always held," said Mr. Bowers, "that the old woman who raised chickens and the bureau of fisheries were the greatest benefactors of mankind. As long as chickens and fish are to be had all the beef trusts in the world cannot run the meat market up unreasonably, because the masses of people will then eat chickens and fish."

Mr. Bowers stated that the fish markets of Havana were a model of efficiency and thoroughness. This condition is probably due to the large number of Catholics, who are heavy consumers of fish.

In Florida Mr. Bowers found that fish were generally eaten and were remarkably cheap. The negro fishermen, bringing in shad and other fish from the St. John river and other streams, where they are plentiful, sell them to the dealers at three cents each, and the consumers can procure fish weighing from two to five pounds each for a nickel. This assures the poor people an abundance of cheap food.

ARE SHORT OF COAL DESPITE DENIALS

North-Western Railway Using Very Inferior Fuel—St. Paul Using Reserve Supply.

Officials of the North-Western have denied the report that the company is suffering for want of coal, but the fact remains that they are now using their reserve supply of coal and none whatever is being moved, a condition which has not existed for some years. This reserve fuel is of a very poor quality and causes the firemen much trouble. The St. Paul road is also feeling the effects of the coal strike in Illinois and is now using its storage coal. The supply piled here last summer is now being loaded and used. However this company has a considerably larger reserve than the North-Western. It is alleged that conditions at the mines of these two companies are about the same and unless some agreement is reached with the miners both will be compelled to abandon portions of their schedules.

Heavy Bells in English Churches.

Exeter, England, has long possessed the heaviest ringing peal of bells in the world. The tenor "Grandison," so named after a former bishop of the diocese, has been recast and its weight increased, so that it is now about three tons thirteen hundred-weight, or roughly, half a ton heavier than the tenor of St. Paul's.

What She Left Off.

A teacher in a certain Episcopal Sunday school had been impressing on her girls the need of making some personal sacrifice during Lent. Accordingly, on the first Sunday of that penitential, which happened to be a warm spring day, she took occasion to ask each of the class in turn what she had given up for the sake of her religion. Everything went well and the answers were proving highly satisfactory until she came to the youngest member. "Well, Mary," inquired the teacher, "what have you left off for Lent?"

"Please, ma'am," stammered the child, somewhat confused, "I've left off my leggins."—Lippincott's.

Smashes Kansas Hotel Bar.

Concordia, Kan., April 16.—W. W. Caldwell, chairman of the Republican county central committee, broke down the door of a saloon in the Colson hotel and smashed the bar, beer pumps and bottled goods.

University of Michigan Gains.

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 16.—The official enrollment figures of the University of Michigan for 1905-06 show a total of 4,571 students. This is a gain of 435 over last year.

Life Sentence for Murderer.

Fergus Falls, Minn., April 16.—Albert F. Schultz pleaded guilty of the murder of Fred Wagner, at Dunn, and was sentenced to a life term of imprisonment.

WE CANNOT HELP IT

If the "bargain" vehicle you bought didn't turn out to be what you paid your money for, and the concern you bought it of is out of business,

The kind of bargains we offer are good, dependable goods, with a strong guarantee of a strong concern behind them. When you buy of us you have the assurance that we are always here to make anything right that isn't.

You may be able to match our prices elsewhere—perhaps—but not for our kind of vehicles; or our vehicles elsewhere—possibly—but not at our reasonable prices. The secret of it all is that we always keep a few laps ahead of the procession.

We have made a study of the likes and needs of vehicle users. Our stock embraces every type of job that is desirable, and each one has a touch here and there which puts it in a class just above and beyond the common run of vehicles.

Whether you care to buy now, or come merely to get posted; our lines will prove interesting and you are just as welcome in either case.

WISCONSIN CARRIAGE CO.

For disposing of surplus articles of furniture, carpets and other household goods nothing equals the little ads. in the Gazette want column. Now is the time when people are looking for bargains in such things. Clear out the attic and get rid of the surplus by the aid of a Gazette Want Ad. Three lines three times for 25 cents.

Steady Advertising In The Gazette Pays.

MR. AMBROSE, OF JEFFERSON, WIS., HAS PROOF THAT IT DOES

DURING the past year Mr. Ambrose has carried a two-inch display advertisement in the Daily and Semi-Weekly Gazette three times each week. He was so well pleased with results that he ordered another year's advertising. Mr. Ambrose's business is such that from an advertising standpoint would be considered a difficult proposition by some to secure returns. Mr. Ambrose says, however, the advertising in the Gazette accomplished much good for him. Read Mr. Ambrose's letter

F. O. AMBROSE

Manufacturer of and Dealer in

Boilers, Engines, Iron Tanks, Smoke Stacks

Jefferson, Wis., March 19, 1906

Gazette Printing Co., Janesville, Wis.

Gents:—Enclosed please find draft. I want you to carry my advertisement for the coming year.

This advertisement in your paper has done me immense good; am sure it will do so in the future.

Yours very truly,

F. O. AMBROSE.

There is no business in Janesville or Rock County, large or small, but that would be financially benefitted through continuous advertising in the Gazette. Consider for a moment—the population of Rock County is 52000, the Gazette has a circulation which reaches over 30000 of this population; it covers Janesville, the rural districts and the smaller cities like a blanket; any doubt as to this point is dispelled through an inspection of the mail lists at the Gazette office. In view of the fact that every day and every week your business news can be placed before such a large number of buyers isn't it reasonable that those points of interest about your business to a few people would be equally interesting to a great number of people. The Gazette maintains an extensive advertising department and will take pleasure in aiding advertisers in any way at any time.